THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Even as the season of Ordinary Time begins to gather momentum, many may still be on summer holidays or at least in a holiday frame of mind. Today's readings have a dynamism about them that jolt us out of our easy lethargy. Welcome or unwelcome, the call is to repent — to change our ways — it is in the air.

PARISH CONTRIBUTIONS

While the current Covid-19 restrictions are in place, the collection baskets will not be handed around the pews, however you can continue to support our parish by placing your contributions in the baskets on the table at each entrance of the church. If you prefer to contribute directly into the bank accounts, see the back page for details.

COVID-19 UPDATE

Please sign-in using the app on your phone to scan the QR image in the foyer or here ⟶
If you don't have the app you need to write your name & phone number on the form provided in the foyer.

I love a sunburnt country, a land of sweeping plains,
Of rugged mountain ranges, of droughts and flooding rains.
I love her far horizons, I love her jewel sea, her beauty and her terror — the wide brown land for me. Dorothea MacKeller

A READING FROM THE FIRST LETTER OF ST PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

Brothers: our time is growing short. Those who have wives should live as though they had none, and those who mourn should live as though they had nothing to mourn for; those who are enjoying life should live as though there were nothing to laugh about; those whose life is buying things should live as though they had nothing of their own; and those who have to deal with the world should not become engrossed in it. I say this because the world as we know it is passing away.

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MARK

After John had been arrested, Jesus went into Galilee. There he proclaimed the Good News from God. 'The time has come' he said 'and the kingdom of God is close at hand. Repent, and believe the Good News.'

As he was walking along by the Sea of Galilee he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net in the lake — for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them 'Follow me and I will make you into fishers of men.' And at once they left their nets and followed him.

Going on a little further, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John; they too were in their boat, mending their nets, he called them at once, and, leaving their father Zebedee in the boat with the men he employed, they went after him.

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

Today we hear about the start of Jesus' public ministry. It begins under the shadow of the cross, "after John had been arrested". At the outset Mark wants to warn his readers that Jesus will be a suffering Messiah. All the same, Jesus' first words, his manifesto, are full of promise: "The time has come and the kingdom of God is close at hand. Repent, and believe the Good News."

WORDS OF WISDOM

Grief never ends...
but it changes.
It's a passage,
not a place to stay.
Grief is not a sign
of weakness,
nor a lack of faith.
It is the price of Love.

New parish appointment

Parish priest, Fr Peter Hoang, is pleased to announce a major staffing appointment.

He has officially welcomed Elle Aurora into the roles of Parish Pastoral Associate and Office Manager.

Elle, who started work this week, will succeed Kaye Shervington who is retiring next month.

The part-time position involves a leadership role in running the parish's sacramental program, in liaison with our schools, and managing a broad range of parish operations.

Fr Peter says Elle perfectly embodies the spirit of volunteerism that is a hallmark of Doubleview parish.

She has a long record of engagement in voluntary work in churches in SA and WA as well as in school settings.

"Her strength of character and polished interpersonal skills will be a real asset to the parish," he said.

Elle's appointment follows a competitive recruitment process late last year.

Fr Peter has arranged a six-week handover period between Kaye and her replacement at the parish office.

"I'm sure all our parishioners will join with me in making Elle feel very welcome and offering her any assistance to ensure she excels in this important position," he added.

ACKNOWLEDGING YEARS OF SERVICE

As we enter 2021, numerous veteran volunteers in our parish are retiring from service.

The parish is deeply indebted to these wonderful people who have worked tirelessly over many years in a range of roles.

These include serving as Altar Society members, Acolytes, Eucharistic Ministers, Counters, Proclaimers, Rosarians and Rosary Care volunteers.

We are keen to record their records of service as part of our history.

To this end, we intend to prepare a tribute document for preservation in the official archives of the parish citing each person's contribution.

We are asking each retiring person to lodge with us a minimum of three sentences summarising their service record.

Here's an example:
[Name] has lived or worked in the parish since [date]. My involvement in [role/ group] began in [date] and covered a period of [number] years. My fondest memory during this time is [description of an event/person/occasion/achievement].

Of course you can go beyond three sentences if you wish.

Please lodge your notations with Richard Goodwin or Kaye Shervington on paper or via email by 15 February:

goodies.ar@iinet.net.au
doubleview@perthcatholic.org.au

We would also be happy to include any photographs you may have from your period of service.

If you have any queries, please contact Kaye or Richard through the Parish Office.

We look forward to paying our respects to everyone included in the tribute document through a future edition of this newsletter.

We extend a very warm welcome to visitors and new parishioners to our Parish. Please introduce yourself to Fr Peter or Fr Tom after Mass.

If you are joining our Parish, please complete a Parishioner Information Form available on the table at the front of the church.
