"Take a Walk with a Yamatji Man: An Artist and His Story"

Reg Carnamah is a proud Badimia Yamatji man from the Geraldton and Yalgoo area. When he took the challenge to use his skills and personal story and struggles to paint the Stations of the Cross during Coronavirus-led restrictions period, the results were not only fourteen paintings, but also acceptance of his past. An accomplished artist with a passion for faith and culture, Reg will share with you his interpretation of the Stations of the Cross and how the challenges that Jesus encountered are reflected in his personal life journey.

When: Tuesday, 16 March at 10am-12pm
Where: Clune Lecture Theatre, Newman Siena Ctr
Cost: $10 Registrations essential by Tuesday 9th www.cfe.org.au, call 9241 5221 / 0425 543 335 or email cfe@perthcatholic.org.au.

The Stations of the Cross will be prayed in the church each Friday during Lent at 7pm.

thank you

'Thank you' to all parishioners for the wonderful farewell morning tea, cards and messages that I have received. It was a great privilege to be the Parish Associate and part of the parish.

My grateful thanks to Fr Peter, Sue Whyte, John Mordini, Doris Zambonetti, Julie Prior, Richard Goodwin, David Doherty and Sr Imelda and many others I have had the pleasure of working with.

I wish Elle all the best in her new position - I am sure she will enjoy it as much as I did.

May God Bless you all.

Kaye

A READING FROM THE FIRST LETTER OF ST PAUL TO THE ROMANS

While the Jews demand miracles and the Greeks look for wisdom, here are we preaching a crucified Christ; to the Jews an obstacle that they cannot get over, to the pagans madness, but to those who have been called, whether they are Jews or Greeks, a Christ who is the power and the wisdom of God. For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MARK

Just before the Jewish Passover Jesus went up to Jerusalem, and in the Temple he found people selling cattle and sheep and pigeons, and the money changers sitting at their counters there. Making a whip out of some cord, he drove them all out of the temple, cattle and sheep as well, scattered the money changers' coins, knocked their tables over and said to the pigeon-sellers, 'Take all this out of here and stop turning my Father's house into a market.' Then his disciples remembered the words of scripture: Zeal for your house will devour me. The Jews intervened and said, 'What sign can you show us to justify what you have done?' Jesus answered, 'Destroy this sanctuary and in three days I will raise it up.' The Jews replied, 'It has taken forty-six years to build this sanctuary: are you going to raise it up in three days?' But he was speaking of the sanctuary that was his body, and when Jesus rose from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the scripture and the words he had said.

During his stay in Jerusalem for the Passover many believed in his name when they saw the signs that he gave, but Jesus knew them all and did not trust himself to them; he never needed evidence about any man; he could tell what a man had in him.

CHOIR PRACTICE

Choir practice for the Easter services will commence on Monday 15 March at 7.30pm.

PROJECT COMPASSION BE MORE

Third Sunday of Lent

Twenty-two-year-old Oliva lives in Tanzania with her farmer husband, two young sons and an adopted niece and nephew.

Oliva, 22, didn't have the opportunity to go to school, and was embarrassed that she was unable to read, write or count.

Her business was losing money because she couldn't add up. Then Oliva enrolled in Caritas Australia's literacy and numeracy classes. She also set up a home classroom to teach her neighbours for free, because they were too shy to attend larger classes. Oliva has now graduated, attendance at her classes is growing, her kiosk is thriving and she is helping her children with their homework. She aims to become a pastor and run for leadership in the next local election - to help her community to 'Be More.'

Please donate to Project Compassion 2021 and support people like Oliva gain access to education to build a brighter future and live in communities that upholds everyone's dignity.

You can donate through Parish boxes and envelopes, by visiting www.caritas.org.au/projectcompassion or phoning 1800 024 413.

PARISHIONERS' TRIBUTE AS KAYE RETIRES

A big crowd of parishioners gathered on Sunday 28 February to mark the retirement of Kaye Shervington.

At 10 o'clock Mass and in a morning tea that followed, Fr Peter and leading parishioner Helen Murray thanked Kaye for her dedicated service to the parish over almost two decades.

Kaye filled the role of Pastoral Associate and office manager during the administration of four parish priests.

Helen observed that during these years, Kaye had helped upgrade the parish operations from the old priory to a temporary facility in the sacristy and finally to the new Rosary Community Centre and associated offices.

She guided many families through funeral and baptismal arrangements and many young people through the sacramental program.

Kaye thanked the many generous volunteers she had worked with in the parish. She made many friends along the way and looks forward to remaining active in the church community.

WELCOME!

We extend a very warm welcome to visitors and new parishioners to our Parish. Please introduce yourself to Fr Peter or Fr Tom after Mass.

If you are joining our Parish, please complete a Parishioner Information Form available on the table at the front of the church.
