A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

When Judas had gone Jesus said:
'Now has the Son of Man been glorified,
and in him God has been glorified.
If God has been glorified in him,
God will in turn glorify him in himself,
and will glorify him very soon.
My little children,
I shall not be with you much longer.
I give you a new commandment:
love one another;
just as I have loved you,
you also must love one another.
By this love you have for one another, everyone will know that you are my disciples '

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

In the gospel today the disciples have realised that when Jesus leaves them, to die and then to return to his Father in heaven, they will no longer experience his personal love and friendship for them in the same way. But Jesus says to them and to us:

(1) that loss will be compensated by the love and care they will give and receive from each other;

(2) in fact, it will be the same divine love of Jesus that they will share and experience among each other.

(3) Jesus has washed their feet to give them an example of what he is talking about;

(4) all of that is what we are celebrating at Mass this morning. The Eucharist reminds us that the divine life is in us and all around us in others.

Fr Tom.
