FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We know, perhaps all too well, how much we human beings can be a mystery to one another. For better or for worse, even longstanding spouses and best friends can discover things about each other that they never suspected. For those who choose to be disciples of Jesus Christ this is a great truth and blessing. No matter how well we think we know him, there are depths in Jesus that we will never cease exploring. He remains endlessly fascinating.

In the early chapters of Mark's gospel Jesus appears as a person of impressive authority. What he has to say has the ring of truth about it, and the power of his personality is such that he draws the most disturbed of human beings into the realm of well-being. Are we ready to follow him?

NEW COMPLEX NOW FULLY OPERATIONAL

Our new parish building complex is off and running as the new year unfolds.

The priory is furnished and occupied, the parish offices likewise and the function venue has already hosted almost a dozen gatherings.

The Rosary Community Centre, which houses the offices and meeting and catering spaces, is clearly denoted by new signage above the front portico. A statue of St Dominic will shortly be unveiled in the courtyard behind the entrance lobby.

While some final fittings and minor adjustments are still to be made in the accommodation, all concerned are grateful for the fine work and efficient timing demonstrated in the construction and fit-out phases. (continued on page 3)

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MARK

Jesus and his followers went as far as Capernaum, and as soon as the Sabbath came Jesus went to the synagogue and began to teach. And his teaching made a deep impression on them because, unlike the scribes, he taught them with authority.

In their synagogue just then there was a man possessed by an unclean spirit, and it shouted, 'What do you want with us Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are: the Holy One of God.' But Jesus said sharply, 'Be quiet! Come out of him!' And the unclean spirit threw the man into convulsions and with a loud cry went out of him. The people were so astonished that they started asking each other what it all meant. 'Here is a teaching that is new' they said, 'and with authority behind it: he gives orders even to unclean spirits and they obey him.' And his reputation rapidly spread everywhere, through all the surrounding Galilean countryside.

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

Mark wastes no time drawing us into the hurly-burly of Jesus' ministry. No sooner has Jesus summoned the four fishermen to follow him than he is fully engaged in the two activities that most characterise his ministry in Mark: teaching and healing. More than that, he does both with power and authority. His teaching has the full force of authenticity, and his healing word is dramatically effective.

Curiously, Mark notes that this first ministry of Jesus takes place on the sabbath but records no controversy about Jesus' conducting an exorcism on this day of rest. He will turn to the issue of Jesus' actions on the sabbath and the debate they stirred up a little later on.

A recurring theme in Mark is the wilful unbelief of the disciples. By contrast those who recognise Jesus as God's holy one are the unclean spirits and outsiders. Time and again Mark will confront us with the question of who Jesus is.

SPECIAL FEAST DAY

February 2nd : THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

In obedience to the Old Law, the Lord Jesus, the first-born, was presented in the Temple.

This feast was first observed in the fifth century in the Eastern Church as "The Encounter." In the sixth century, it began to be observed in the West: in Rome with a more penitential character and in Gaul (France) with solemn blessings and processions of candles, popularly known as "Candlemas." Celebrated 40 days after Christmas, The Presentation of the Lord concludes the celebration of the Nativity.

EXPLORING QUESTIONS OF LIFE, FAITH & MEANING

Term 1 courses start in February. There are a range of topics and times as well as varying course lengths at different venues. There are also on-line courses.

Brochures are available on the table in the church foyer or for more information phone 9241 5221 or go to the website - www.cfe.org.au

WINE AND CHEESE GET-TOGETHER

Next Saturday (3rd February) Father Peter invites all parishioners to join him for a glass of wine after the 6pm Mass.

We plan to host these 'get-togethers' on the first Saturday of each month.

KEEP THIS DATE FREE:

Our new priory and parish centre will be officially opened and blessed by Fr Anthony Walsh OP after the 10am Mass on March 11, followed by Morning tea. Please bring a plate to share.

Building complex in full operation

Work began early in May and the parish took control of the premises in mid-December.

Special thanks go to building chairman Paul Roberts and his committee, prime contractor Badge, the subcontractors, architects and other service and equipment suppliers.

Dominican Provincial, Fr Anthony Walsh OP, is pleased with the outcome after his recent stay and looks forward to returning to preside at the official opening and blessing on 11 March at 11am.

The next focus of attention will be the completion of landscaping in the vicinity of the new complex, the return of the restored statue of Our Lady and the development of a program of regular events in the centre and fund-raising opportunities.

MARRIAGE RESOURCE CENTRE

Break Through In Your Relationship

We all struggle at times in our marriage but it's not always easy to find good advice or practical help. SmartLoving BreakThrough is an online course FREE until St Valentine's Day. It will help you understand how conflict happens, guide you to develop an effective strategy for managing it, and lead you through a process of personal rejuvenation designed to heal the pain caused by conflict with your loved one.

The course is designed for individual spouses so you don't need your spouse to do the course with you.

ORDINARY TIME

Entrance Antiphon

Save us, O Lord our God!
And gather us from the nations,
to give thanks to your holy name,
and make it our glory to praise you.

First reading: Deuteronomy 18:15-20
(I will put my words into the prophet's mouth, and he will tell them all I command.)

Responsorial Psalm
If today you hear his voice,
harden not your hearts.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 7:32-35
(The unmarried woman dedicates herself to the things of the Lord, that she might be holy.)

Gospel Acclamation:
Alleluia, alleluia!
The people in darkness have seen a great light; a radiant dawn shines on those lost in death. Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 9:2-10
(This is a new kind of teaching that speaks with authority..)
