SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

Just as we always hear the story of Jesus' testing on the first Sunday of Lent, so we always hear of his transfiguration on the second.

One way of interpreting this choice is to see the story of the transfiguration as a source of encouragement for us on our Lenten journey. If we are disheartened by the challenge of last Sunday's gospel, then we might be reassured today by the vision of Jesus' glory. The story of the transfiguration follows on from Paul's emphatic affirmation that God is on our side, a declaration that we might well welcome after the disturbing story of Abraham and Isaac.

Appealing as it is, the gospel story makes it clear that we can't escape into an imaginary paradise as Peter was tempted to do. Jesus must come down from the mountain and continue on his way. This is the choice he makes. He faces up to the fate that awaits him in Jerusalem. What about us? Will we continue to follow him all the way to Calvary and beyond?

EASTER CHOIR PRACTICE

In preparation for the Easter ceremonies, choir practice will commence on Monday 26 February at 7.30pm. You are most welcome to join us!

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL
ACCORDING TO JOHN

Jesus took with him Peter and James and John and led them up a high mountain where they could be alone by themselves. There in their presence he was transfigured: his clothes became dazzlingly white, whiter than any earthly bleacher could make them. Elijah appeared to them with Moses; and they were talking with Jesus. Then Peter spoke to Jesus. 'Rabbi, he said, 'it is wonderful for us to be here; so let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah. He did not know what to say; they were so frightened. And a cloud came, covering them in shadow; and there came a voice from the cloud, 'this is my Son, the Beloved. Listen to him. Then suddenly, when they looked round, they saw no one with them any more but only Jesus.

As they came down the mountain he warned them to tell no one what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead. they observed the warning faithfully, though among themselves they discussed what 'rising from the dead' could mean.

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

The story of the transfiguration is one of the richest in the gospel. It has links to some of the great figures and events of the Jewish tradition, especially Moses and Elijah and all they signified. It echoes the accounts of God revealing himself on holy mountains and in natural phenomena such as thunder and lightning and storm. It connects with the foundational story of the exodus when the Israelites dwelt in tents and were led by cloud and fire.

The narrative of the transfiguration also has important associations with other gospel stories. The words spoken from the cloud — "This is my Son, the Beloved. Listen to him" — parallel those spoken on the occasion of Jesus' baptism. And the naming of Peter, James and John reminds us of other occasions when they are Jesus' chosen companions, especially at his prayer in the garden of Gethsemane. Every one of these associations invites exploration.

PROJECT COMPASSION FOR A JUST FUTURE

Rattanak is a skilled young barber, living an independent life in rural Cambodia. But it wasn't always that way.

As a child he contracted polio and also became deaf.

Like many people who are deaf or hard of hearing, Rattanak faced isolation at home, with a lack of opportunity to escape poverty. His sister discovered the Deaf Development Program (DDP), run by Caritas Australia partner, Maryknoll Cambodia. It provides sign language, job training and interpreting services to people aged 16 and over who are deaf or hard of hearing and aims to raise awareness about deafness in the hearing community. So far, it's helped over 430 deaf or hard of hearing people with their education and more than 200 people to find jobs. It has also trained more than 300 people without deafness as sign language interpreters.

Rattanak graduated from its education program in 2010, returning the following year to train as a barber. The DDP then helped him to set up his shop in his parent's house in the village. Having emerged from his isolated world at home, Rattanak is now running a successful business, supporting himself and his wife...and now a baby.

Please donate to Project Compassion 2018 and help deaf youth in Cambodia to build a just future, and live in communities that uphold everyone's dignity.

OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY FOUNDATION

Dear Parishioners,

The Board of Directors wish to express its sincere gratitude to parishioners who have made a bequest to the Foundation. Parishioners who have made a bequest but have not notified the Board are kindly urged to do so as soon as it is convenient. Your generosity is appreciated.

While the initial contributions have helped the Foundation to make a good start, there is room for more participation. The Board is once again appealing to all of you to think about leaving a gift in your Will through the Our Lady of the Rosary Foundation. As previously advised, your bequest, large or small, will be prudently used for the long-term good of our Church, which has been recently recognised as a heritage building by the City of Stirling Council

Additional information regarding the Foundations and its benefits can be obtained from the information brochures available at the front of the Church or if you wish to discuss, feel free to contact the secretary, Peter Whyte on 92840981 or email peterwhyte@westnet.com.au

Peter will also be in a position discuss the best way of showing the Foundation's appreciation for your contribution.

If you are thinking of leaving a bequest we also encourage you to please discuss with family and friends before deciding on this very satisfying commitment.

You can rest assured that your legacy is bound to be remembered and will go a long way to making a lasting impression and positive difference to our Parish community and beyond.

May God Bless you.

Board of Directors
