THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

Now that our Lenten journey is well under way, we move into a new phase of the season. So far we've been guided by the twin stories of Jesus' testing in the wilderness and his transfiguration on the holy mountain.

In year B, the following three Sunday gospel texts are taken from John: the cleansing of the temple, Jesus' dialogue with Nicodemus, and an alternative "agony in the garden". One after the other they bring into focus for us the person of Jesus, his mission and the challenge of discipleship. Together with key stories from the old Testament and telling passages from Paul and the letter to the Hebrews, they raise serious questions for us would-be followers of Jesus to wrestle with along the way.

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

Just before the Jewish Passover Jesus went up to Jerusalem, and in the Temple he found people selling cattle and sheep and pigeons, and the money changers sitting at their counters there. Making a whip out of some cord, he drove them all out of the Temple, cattle and sheep as well, scattered the money changers' coins, knocked their tables over and said to the pigeon-sellers, 'Take all this out of here and stop turning my Father's house into a market.' Then his disciples remembered the words of scripture: Zeal for your house will devour me. The Jews intervened and said, 'What sign can you show us to justify what you have done?' Jesus answered, 'Destroy this sanctuary, and in three days I will raise it up.' The Jews replied, 'It has taken forty-six years to build this sanctuary: are you going to raise it up in three days?' But he was speaking of the sanctuary that was his body, and when Jesus rose from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the scripture and the words he had said.

During his stay in Jerusalem for the Passover many believed in his name when they saw the signs that he gave, but Jesus knew them all and did not trust himself to them; he never needed evidence about any man; he could tell what a man had in him.

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

Unlike the other three evangelists, John tells the story of the cleansing of the temple very early in his gospel, shortly after the beginning of Jesus' ministry. By placing this event so early, John achieves two things. He establishes a dynamic of confrontation between Jesus and the authorities that will be played out from this point on in a variety of ways. And he introduces the theme of Jesus as the new temple. This focus central both to this episode and to the gospel as a whole, is unique to John and colours his account of the cleansing.

It is impressively told, combining narrative, dialogue and action in a powerful whole that suggests layers of meaning to be uncovered. As John says in the original conclusion to his gospel, "these [signs] are recorded so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing this you may have life through his name."

PROJECT COMPASSION

FOR A JUST FUTURE

Bayan is a 12 year old Syrian girl, living with her family in Jordan, a keen student, who has her sights set on a career as an ophthalmologist.

She struggled to overcome the trauma of growing up in a conflict zone, facing the prospect of missing out on schooling. Now, Bayan is an academic high-achiever, flourishing in a stable school environment. Bayan grew up in Syria's capital, Damascus. The Syrian conflict turned their lives upside down and they were forced to flee. As their time in Jordan extended, Caritas Australia and our partners, Caritas Jordan and Catholic Relief Services stepped in to provide vital academic and psychosocial support. Bayan started attending one of Jordan's Caritas Schools which operates on Saturdays, providing tuition to disadvantaged students.

"The school brings them back to a normal life, as they start to dream again," says Abeer, Caritas Education and Protection Co-ordinator. Caritas provides a broad range of other education services, including preparing pre-school children for school, supporting students who have missed out on schooling to return to the education system, as well as counselling and nutritious meals and snacks at school.

Please donate to Project Compassion 2018 and help equip young people to succeed in the future, bringing stability to vulnerable youth, providing just futures for others like Bayan uphold everyone's dignity.
