SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

For the past five weeks we, the long baptised and the newly baptised, have been relishing life in the Spirit, though we have yet to read Luke's account of the first outpouring of the Spirit. That will come in two weeks' time on Pentecost Sunday. Today we anticipate the story of the original event by hearing of a later "Pentecost" — but one with a difference. This time the gift of the Spirit is poured out on pagans, and a new era in the mission of the Church is launched.

All the baptised share in this mission, as Pope Francis wrote in The Joy of the Gospel: "In virtue of their baptism, all the members of the People of God have become missionary disciples. All the baptised, whatever their position in the Church or their level of instruction in the faith, are agents of evangelisation ..."

Pope Francis' appeal continues to ring in our ears: "Let us not allow ourselves to be robbed of missionary enthusiasm."

WINE & CHEESE

Please join Father Peter and fellow parishioners for a glass of wine after the 6pm Mass this weekend.

HERITAGE MARKER HONOURS PARISH

A heritage marker erected by the City of Stirling last year has been relocated to a more prominent position at the request of the parish priest Fr Peter Hoang.

It is now embedded in clear view in the footpath immediately adjacent to the steps that lead to the church from street level.

The inscription on the marker pays tribute to the elegance and craftsmanship of the church building and to the valued presence of the Dominican parish precinct to the local community.

The visionary leadership of Fr Bonaventure Leahy OP is also acknowledged alongside the fine work of stonemason Adrian Gosatti.

The parish church of Our Lady of the Rosary was the architectural vision of building supervisor Fr Bonaventure Leahy OP. The building was constructed in 1973 by stonemason Adrian Gosatti using Toodyay stone especially hewn for the project. The church, parish centre, priory and neighbouring school form a historically significant complex, which is valued by the local Catholic community and reflects the work of the Dominican Order and the growth of Woodlands.

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

Jesus said to his disciples:
 'As the Father has loved me,
 so I have loved you.
 Remain in my love.
 If you keep my commandments
 you will remain in my love,
 just as I have kept my Father's commandments
 and remain in his love.
 I have told you this
 so that my own joy may be in you
 and your joy be complete.
 This is my commandment:
 love one another, as I have loved you.
 A man can have no greater love
 than to lay down his life for his friends.
 You are my friends,
 if you do what I command you.
 I shall not call you servants any more,
 because a servant does not know
 its master's business;
 I call you friends,
 because I have made known to you
 everything I have learnt from my Father.
 You did not choose me, no, I chose you;
 and I commissioned you
 to go out and to bear fruit, fruit that will last;
 and then the Father will give you anything you ask in my name.
 What I command you
 is to love one another.'
