A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MARK.

Jesus went to his home town and his disciples accompanied him. With the coming of the sabbath he began teaching in the synagogue and most of them were astonished when they heard him. They said, 'Where did the man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been granted him, and these miracles that are worked through him? This is the carpenter, surely, the son of Mary, the brother of James and Joset and Jude and Simon? His sisters, too, are they not here with us?' And they would not accept him. And Jesus said to them 'A prophet is only despised in his own country among his own relations and in his own house'; and he could work no miracle there, though he cured a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith.

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

Two particular details of this gospel passage are worth noting. The first is that Jesus is identified, perhaps out of contempt, as "son of Mary" rather than "son of Joseph", and reference is made to his "brothers" and "sisters". There is still much dispute as to what these terms tell us about Jesus' family relationships. The second is that it's by the laying on of hands that Jesus cures a few of the sick. The touch of Jesus features repeatedly in the healing stories recorded by Mark.

FIRST EUCHARIST

Father Peter would like to have just one celebration of First Eucharist Mass, commencing this year. It is hoped that all candidates will be able to attend the 6pm Mass on Saturday 18 August. If for some reason families are not able to attend the Saturday evening Mass, Father will celebrate a First Eucharist Mass the next morning at 10am. Please let Kaye know if you cannot make the Saturday Mass.

UFO CRAFT GROUP

Wednesday 11th July
9.30am to 12.30pm

Our focus for the first meeting is to make a start on knitted squares to make blankets for St Vincent de Paul, but you can do your own thing as well.
