TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

For a hand-picked inner circle of disciples, the Twelve prove to be remarkably dull and slow. As Mark tells it, they fail again and again to grasp who Jesus really was and what he was about. Jesus rebukes them repeatedly for being so thick-headed. If the story of the washing of the feet were in Mark's gospel rather than John's, there's no doubt that the disciples would have had to say "No" when asked by Jesus: "Do you understand what I have done to you?"

There's no reply recorded in John. Instead, Jesus proceeds to explain the meaning of his gesture. "If I, then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet, you should wash each other's feet. I have given you an example so that you may copy what I have done to you."

This is not what the disciples had in mind when they argued with each other on the road about who was the greatest. Our lust for power may not be as blatant as it was among the Twelve. Perhaps we are cleverer at disguising it. But few of us are free of its grip.

A READING FROM THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MARK

After leaving the mountain Jesus and his disciples made their way through Galilee; and he did not want anyone to know, because he was instructing his disciples; he was telling them, 'The Son of Man will be delivered into the hands of men; they will put him to death; and three days after he has been put to death he will rise again.' But they did not understand what he said and were afraid to ask him.

They came to Capernaum, and when he was in the house he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the road?' They said nothing because they had been arguing which of them was the greatest. So he sat down, called the Twelve to him and said, 'If anyone wants to be first, he must make himself last of all and servant of all.' He then took a little child, set him in front of them, put his arms round him, and said to them, 'Anyone who welcomes one of these little children in my name, welcomes me; and anyone who welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.'

Commentary on the Gospel

Jesus attempts to instruct his disciples about his true identity and impending fate, but typically "they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him".

Perhaps they did understand all too well, for it immediately becomes evident that the disciples are ambitious for power and glory, not humiliation and suffering. Jesus' teaching is unambiguous. The disciples are to devote themselves to service, not aggrandisement. As the gospel now reads, the child becomes the symbol of those who have no favours to grant in return for being paid attention.

Words of Wisdom

*"Prayer is the best weapon we have;
it is the key to God's heart. You must speak to Jesus not only with your lips, but with your heart. In fact on certain occasions you should only speak to Him with your heart." Padre Pio*

OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY FOUNDATION

Last Wednesday, 19 September, Our Lady of the Rosary Foundation hosted a very successful event at the Rosary Community Centre. Following a delicious morning tea, an enthusiastic audience of 50 people heard from a guest speaker about how to “Stay on Your Feet”, based on three key steps — Move your Body, Improve your Health, Remove Hazards. These steps are designed to help people avoid slips, trips and falls as they get older. This was followed by a short presentation on simple exercises by OLR parishioner, Carli Woolfrey. We would like to thank all those who attended and the willing helpers who assisted with setting up, packing down and providing morning tea.

Rosary Community Centre presents

The second talk in the “Rosary Community Centre Presents” series will be on Wednesday 17 October, with a presentation on ‘Healthy Ageing’. More information to follow soon.

SPECIAL FEASTS

September 27 SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL

Born in Gascony France in 1581, St Vincent was a parish priest who worked for the apostolic renewal of the clergy, founding the Congregation of the Mission (Vincentians or Lazarists) for missionary work in rural areas and for the formation of clergy. Committed above all to the oppressed and disadvantaged, he founded the Daughters of Charity with Louise de Marillac to work with the needy. He is remembered especially for his practical concern for the poor and the sick. He died on this day in 1660.

September 29: SAINTS MICHAEL, GABRIEL & RAPHAEL

This day marks the dedication of a fifth century church of Saint Michael in Rome. Raphael and Gabriel were added to the Roman calendar in the twentieth century and the three are now celebrated together. In the Scriptures each of the three angels is named as a messenger of God entrusted with special divine missions on earth.
