TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Gifts of the Spirit

In the readings today, we hear that both Moses and Jesus rejoice in the gifts of the Spirit given to others. They are thankful for them, not threatened by them. We are reminded today that the Spirit roams free, beyond the boundaries that human beings or institutions set up. Let us give thanks for the Spirit-filled men and women of our time, both in the church and in other lively movements, and pray again, "Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth."

CELEBRATING 20 - 40 YEARS OF MARRIAGE

At the 10am Mass this Sunday, Father Peter will be giving a special blessing to all couples celebrating a 20th to 40th wedding anniversary this year. After Mass, you are invited to join fellow parishioners for morning tea in the Rosary Community Centre.

Rosary Community Centre presents

The second talk in this series will be on Wednesday 17 October, with a presentation on 'Healthy Ageing'. More information to follow soon.

GARDEN UPDATE

The first stage of the Rosary Community Garden project is nearing completion with only some paving work and laying of turf left.

The second stage will mainly involve planting. Designer Lidia Ellis will oversee this phase with help from volunteers.

Lidia will soon issue a list of plants to be acquired and installed. We expect this will happen by mid-October. We know people are keen to donate and participate in the planting stage.
