A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL
ACCORDING TO MARK

In his teaching Jesus said, 'Beware of the scribes who like to walk about in long robes, to be greeted obsequiously in the market squares, to take the front seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets; these are the men who swallow the property of widows, while making a show of lengthy prayers. The more severe will be the sentence they receive.

He sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the treasury, and many of the rich put in a great deal. A poor widow came and put in two small coins, the equivalent of a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, this poor widow has put more in than all who have contributed to the treasury; for they have all put in money they had left over, but she from the little she had, has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on.

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

On his way to Jerusalem Jesus had responded to the ambitions of his disciples by declaring that he had come not "to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many". Now that he is in the holy city preparing for his fate he reiterates his position. He voices sharp criticism of religious leaders, in this case the scribes, who shore up their status at the expense of the poor. Then he highlights the astonishing generosity of the poor widow.

Jesus' observation that the widow "has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on" can be interpreted in two different ways. He could be praising her extraordinary trust in and devotion to God, anticipating the imminent unconditional surrender of his own life into God's hands. Or he could be intensifying his criticism of the scribes for persuading such a vulnerable woman to give away the last coins she had to survive on.

SPECIAL FEAST DAYS

November 17: SAINT ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY

Saint Elizabeth was born in Bratislava (Slovakia) in 1207. At the age of fourteen she married Ludwig of Thuringia and had three children. Her husband died of the plague while on crusade six years after their marriage — Elizabeth was just 20. She continued her work with the poor, founding orphanages and hospitals, living the life of service to protect the poor. She is remembered for her good-humoured resilience in adversity and for her humility in the menial service of the needy.

She died on this day in Germany in 1231, aged 24.

MESSAGE OF THANKS FROM CATHOLIC MISSION

"...This poor widow has put in more than all..." Our heart-felt thanks for your prayerful and generous response to last weekend's Catholic Mission/Propagation of the Faith Appeal. Your donations provide desperately poor parishes in every developing country around the world with the means to attend to the needs of the most vulnerable in their community.

Through your prayers and generosity, God's love touches the hearts of those forgotten by the rest of the world. Should you wish to participate in God's Mission more fully by helping to promote the work of Catholic Mission and the vision of Pope Francis, or by leaving a bequest or by exploring what a lay missionary experience could involve, then feel free to email director.cm@perthcatholic.org.au to arrange for a chat about the possibilities.

Once again, SINCERE THANKS and God Bless you for your ongoing support and generosity.
