DIVINE POWER WILL PREVAIL

No previous generation has lived with the awareness that human beings are capable of destroying the planet. Fear of nuclear conflagration may have receded somewhat from our minds, only to be replaced by anxiety about the potentially catastrophic implications of climate change. The truth is that, even if the global community were able to disarm these threats, we believers would still live our lives in constant expectation of an end. What makes us different is our belief that the ultimate end will be a godsend, a blessing, a completion.

When and how the end will come, either for us personally or for the whole of creation, lies beyond our sight. The Bible doesn't give us scientific information like this. Instead it uses vivid imagery and colourful language to warn of chaos on a cosmic scale. This is not meant to frighten us. On the contrary it's to convince us that whatever upheaval lies ahead our individual and global destinies are in God's hands. The horizon against which we live is one of hope. Our task is to let this hope liberate us to put all our energies to work for the well-being of the world.

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MARK

Jesus said to his disciples: 'In those days, after the time of distress, the sun will be darkened, the moon will lose its brightness, the stars will come falling from heaven and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory; then too he will send the angels to gather his chosen from the four winds, from the ends of the world to the ends of heaven.

'Take the fig tree as a parable: as soon as its twigs grow supple and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. So with you, when you see these things happening: know that he is near, at the very gates. I tell you solemnly, before this generation has passed away all these things will have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

But as for that day or hour, nobody knows it, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son; no one but the Father.'

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

This final extract from Mark's gospel is a key section of the apocalyptic discourse in Chapter 13. God's ultimate triumph is the focus of today's reading.

The fearsome shaking of the heavens is described in language drawn from the prophets. This cataclysmic event heralds the ultimate end of the world and the coming of the Son of Man, so it represents good news. The cosmic imagery is complemented by the homely parable of the fig tree coming into full bloom.

There is certainty in the assurance that in the end divine power will prevail, but what remains uncertain is when all this will come to pass. The effect of the reading is to both warn and encourage the Christian community to live with resilient faith.

SPECIAL FEAST DAY

November 21:

THE PRESENTATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Mary's presentation was celebrated in Jerusalem in the sixth century. A church was built there in honour of this mystery. The Eastern Church was more interested in the feast, but it does appear in the West in the 11th century. Although the feast at times disappeared from the calendar, in the 16th century it became a feast of the universal Church. As with Mary's birth, we read of Mary's presentation in the temple only in apocryphal literature. In what is recognised as an unhistorical account, the Protoevangelium of James tells us that Anna and Joachim offered Mary to God in the Temple when she was 3 years old. This was to carry out a promise made to God when Anna was still childless.

Though it cannot be proven historically, Mary's presentation has an important theological purpose. It continues the impact of the feasts of the Immaculate Conception and of the birth of Mary. It emphasises that the holiness conferred on Mary from the beginning of her life on earth continued through her early childhood and beyond.

ROSARY COMMUNITY CENTRE PRESENTS: 'PLANNING FOR THE FUTURE'

An information session delivered by the Office of the Public Advocate

If you are injured or become unwell and cannot make decisions about your finances and property, or lifestyle and health care, who would make these important decisions for you?

Enduring Powers of Attorney, Enduring Powers of Guardianship and Advance Health Directives are planning documents which give adults the power to plan for this possibility and make sure their views are known.

If you are interested in finding out how you can use these documents, register for this FREE information session ASAP by calling Helen Murray on 0422 965 696 or emailing rosarycommunitytalks@gmail.com.

Date: Wednesday 21 November, 2018, 9.30am - 11.30am
Venue: Rosary Community Centre, 17 Angelico Street, Woodlands

Morning tea and copies of the publications will be provided.

Thank you!

On behalf of all Parishioners, Father Peter would like to thank four members of our Parish who have recently retired from many years of active service to the Parish —

Michael Gillooly a long serving Acolyte and a past Chairman of the Parish Pastoral Council;*

Peter Gillett, also a long serving Acolyte;*

Joan Trew, an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, and dedicated contributor to the RCIA program; and*

Anne Taylor, an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion and a member of the Parish Pastoral Council.*

The Parish is deeply indebted to these Parishioners, and to the many others who make regular contributions to ensure the smooth running of the Parish.

THANK YOU

The family of Gabriel Chee would like to extend their thanks to Father Peter for celebrating the funeral service for their father on Friday 9th November, and to the many parishioners who attended. They would also like to thank the friends who made time to visit him before his death. Your support is greatly appreciated.
