Easter is the celebration of Christ's resurrection from the dead. It is celebrated on Sunday, and marks the end of Holy Week, the end of Lent, the last day of the Easter Triduum (Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Sunday), and is the beginning of the Easter season of the liturgical year.

As we know from the Gospels, Jesus Christ rose from the dead on the third day following his crucifixion, which would be Sunday. His resurrection marks the triumph of good over evil, sin and death. It is the singular event which proves that those who trust in God and accept Christ will be raised from the dead.

Fr Peter, Fr Chinh, Kaye and the Dominican Sisters wish all parishioners and visitors a very happy and safe Easter.

COMMISSIONING MASS

A READING FROM THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark, when Mary of Magdala came to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the tomb and came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved. 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb' she said, 'and we don't know where they have put him.'

So Peter set out with the other disciple to go to the tomb. They ran together, but the other disciple, running faster than Peter, reached the tomb first; he bent down and saw the linen cloths lying on the ground, but did not go in. Simon Peter who was following now came up, went right into the tomb, saw the linen cloths on the ground, and also the cloth that had been over his head; this was not with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in; he saw and he believed. Till this moment they had failed to understand the teaching of scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

On Good Friday afternoon John's gospel left us at the tomb of Jesus. Today it takes us back there. With Mary of Magdala, Peter and the disciple Jesus loved, we discover "very early on the first day of the week" that the tomb is empty. What are we to make of this?

There's a striking difference in the gospels between the passion narratives and the resurrection stories. The accounts of the passion are long, with a strong storyline, and are full of vivid detail. The resurrection stories by contrast, are relatively short and enigmatic. They have an air of mystery and obscurity about them. They raise more questions than provide answers.

Today's passage is no exception. Who is the disciple Jesus loved? Why is so much made of who reached the tomb or went in first? What are we meant to understand about the various cloths? What exactly enabled the "other disciple" to see and believe? At this point no answers are given. We are left to wonder whether we ourselves have understood "the teaching of scripture, that he must rise from the dead".
