PENTECOST SUNDAY

The feast of Pentecost brings the season of Easter to a glorious close. Though we hear Luke telling us today that the Spirit was bestowed fifty days after the resurrection, we know that we've already spent the entire Easter season "In the Spirit". The reason for this is made clear by the gospel reading. In John's version of events, Jesus breathed out his spirit on the disciples on the very day of his resurrection, "the first day of the week". Each writer has a theological perspective that accounts for his particular chronology.

We have not spent the last seven weeks waiting for the Spirit. The feast of Pentecost allows us to cry a final full-hearted "Alleluia!" for all the Spirit has accomplished in us and will continue to do. We pray with fresh fervour the same response to the psalm that followed the story of creation at the Easter Vigil fifty days ago: "Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth".

MISSION SUNDAY

16TH JUNE

At all masses next Sunday we will have a visiting priest to talk to us about the work of the mission.

The Sacrament of Confirmation

Congratulations to all the young people of our Parish who are receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation this weekend. May the Holy Spirit continue to guide you and your families on your faith journey.

Pentecost is the celebration of God's gift of the Holy Spirit to the world.

It is the birthday of our missionary Church. Next weekend's, Catholic Mission Propagation of the Faith Appeal invites us to lovingly respond to this gift by connecting with and participating in the missionary work of our Church through prayer and generous donations so that the message of God's love can be proclaimed and fulfilled throughout the world. Happy Birthday.

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

Jesus said to his disciples:

If you love me you will keep my commandments.
I shall ask the Father and he will give you another Advocate to be with you for ever.
if anyone loves me he will keep my word,
and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him and make our home with him.
Those who do not love me do not keep my words.
And my word is not my own;
it is the word of the one who sent me.
I have said these things to you while still with you:
but the Advocate, the Holy Spirit,
whom the Father will send in my name,,
will teach you everything
and remind you of all I have said to you.'

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

For the gospel text we return to Jesus' words of farewell to his disciples, some of which we heard two Sundays ago. What is immediately striking is the vast difference in tone and content between the first reading and the gospel.

In the first reading, the epiphany of the Spirit on Pentecost Day is described dramatically in terms of wind and fire and multi-lingual preaching. It is a grand-scale public event. In the gospel, Jesus' verbal testament, by contrast, is intimate, affectionate, personal and private. No sign accompanies his words, but they are spoken between the sign of foot-washing and the final triumphant sign of the cross.

Where the Pentecost event is bursting with missionary energy, the gospel farewell discourse is focussed on the hearts of the disciples and the communion of life they share with Father, Word and Spirit. These have been the two poles between which the Church has journeyed throughout the Easter season. Indwelling and mission — these are the dynamic inter-related works of the Spirit in the on-going life of the Church. ['Pastoral Liturgy']

The commissioning of new members and new presidents will take place during the 10am Mass on 23 June. Presentations of Service Awards will follow after the commissioning.

“THE SAINTS AND US” SEMINAR

The second seminar in The Saints and Us series took place in the parish centre last Wednesday morning. A short video on Br Roger and the community at Taize was followed by a stimulating and uplifting discussion. About a dozen people attended, with many new faces among the group. The next seminar — on St Therese of Lisieux — will be led by Cathy Bostock on 3 July, and everyone is most welcome to attend. Please watch this newsletter and the church noticeboards for further details.

UFO CRAFT GROUP IN JUNE

We meet again on Wednesday June 12 & 26 in the Parish Community Centre at 9.30 to 11.30am.

Join us as we design single bed rugs knitted in strips, knee rugs crocheted in squares or novelty items for the Christmas tree.

WORLDWIDE MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER:

Your wedding was just one day in your life, but your marriage is forever. A Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend can put the newness back into your relationship. Give yourself and your spouse time away from the pressures of work and everyday responsibilities. Enjoy the chance to talk and listen to each other. You'll love the difference a Marriage Encounter Weekend can make. We invite you to join us on our next Marriage Encounter Weekend 26-28 July 2019 OR 18-20 October 2019 to be held at Atrium Resort, Mandurah. For more information or booking contact: Valerie & Brendon on 0424 220 625 – Email: WAbookings@wwme.org.au Website – www.wwme.org.au
