THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

The mystery of the Trinity can be approached either as a theological conundrum or as an adventure in faith. The word of God invites us to take the latter route. The readings for the day help us retrace some of the steps taken by our forebears in faith as they were led to discover Father, Son and Spirit communing in the one Godhead and enfolding the whole of creation in their love.

St Vincent de Paul Society
good works

The commissioning of new members and new presidents will take place during the 10am Mass next weekend - 23 June. Presentation of Service Awards will follow.

WHAT'S ON

June 16: Morning tea after 8am Mass
23: St Vincent de Paul Society —
commissioning during 10am Mass
morning tea after 10am Mass
26: Craft group - 9.30am
27: Regis Mass - 10am
30: Youth Mass

Reach out. Give life.

On this Feast of The Most Holy Trinity we celebrate the mystery of God's eternal love and communion with us. Your prayers and generous support for Catholic Mission's Propagation of the Faith Appeal this weekend is a concrete opportunity for us to express this communion and love with thousands of impoverished and marginalised communities all over the world.

WELCOME FR KEVIN

We extend a very warm welcome to Mission Priest, Fr Kevin Barrett, who is celebrating Mass with us this weekend.

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

Jesus said to his disciples:

'I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now. But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come. He will glorify me since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine. Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said: All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.'

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

The brief and bare introduction to today's gospel — "Jesus said to his disciples" — gives no clue to the setting in which these words are spoken, yet it is all important. This passage is an excerpt from Jesus' lengthy conversation with his disciples on the night before he died. His words are characterised by an extraordinary dual intimacy — between Jesus and his companions and between Jesus and his God.

These features are evident in the few verses of this reading. Jesus assures his friends, who are distressed by his talk of leaving, that in his place they will have the Holy Spirit to guide them. The Spirit will keep Jesus' teaching alive in their midst and lead them to the fullness of truth. This work of the Spirit can be seen in the conclusions of the great Church councils that make explicit what Jesus alludes to here: that Father, Son and Spirit enjoy an unrestricted and dynamic communion of being and activity as one God and three Persons.

UFO CRAFT GROUP IN JUNE

We meet again on Wednesday June 26 in the Parish Community Centre at 9.30 to 11.30am.

Join us as we design single bed rugs knitted in strips, knee rugs crocheted in squares or novelty items for the Christmas tree. (images for visual effect only!)

"CARE FOR LIFE"

Most Rev Timothy Costelloe has asked the Catholic people of the Archdiocese to contact their local member of Parliament regarding the WA Government's wishes to legalise assisted suicide and euthanasia.

You are encouraged to write a letter to your MP expressing your view. There are leaflets available on the table in the foyer to assist you in identifying your Upper and Lower House representatives.

Or you can go to <http://careforlife.net.au/getinvolved> or contact the Care for Life team directly via email care@careforlife.net.au or phone 9242 4066.
