The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Today the word of God focuses on the eucharist as a meal that reveals God's saving work for us in Jesus. By our communion in the Body and Blood of Christ we enter into the mystery of Jesus' self-gift to us in shared food and drink. The eucharist is not a sacred object but first and foremost an action that engages us personally and socially. It calls us to break the bread and pour out the wine of our lives for the sake of the world.

St Vincent de Paul Society

good works

The commissioning of new members and new presidents will take place during the 10am Mass this weekend. Presentation of Service Awards will follow after the commissioning. Everyone is invited to enjoy morning tea after Mass.

ALTAR SERVERS

Congratulations and welcome to the new group of Altar Servers who have been trained over the last few weeks — Levi Berry, Zara Mascarenhas, Oliver McDonald, Thomas Roshin and Hannah Woolfrey. They will be joining Michael Ellis in this important ministry each weekend.

Thank you to Fr Chinh, Aleana Bennan, Kevin Susai and Joseph Wong for assisting with the training of these young People.

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing.

It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said, 'Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.' He replied, 'Give them something to eat yourselves.' But they said, 'We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.' For there were about five thousand men. But he said to his disciples, 'Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.' They did so and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd. They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets.

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

In the gospel reading, we can recognise that God wants us to be involved; to be receivers of the blessing to be sure but, also, to be sharers in the act of blessing. Further, just as Christ did not ask the disciples to give what they did not have, so too we approach the Eucharist as we are with what little we can bring. Thus, in the wonderful mystery of the Body and Blood of Christ, we also offer to God our efforts and labours, even when they seem entirely inadequate, and we allow Christ to bless them and make them more than enough for ourselves and for those around us.

“CARE FOR LIFE”

Most Rev Timothy Costelloe has asked the Catholic people of the Archdiocese to contact their local member of Parliament regarding the WA Government's wishes to legalise assisted suicide and euthanasia.

You are encouraged to write a letter to your MP expressing your view. There are leaflets available on the table in the foyer to assist you in identifying your Upper and Lower House representatives.

Reach out. Give life.

On this Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ we recognise that many are hungry and seek to be healed and nourished by Jesus through us. And so it is that Jesus' miracle of the loaves and fishes is performed each day in missionary parishes throughout the developing world. Your donation to Catholic Mission's Propagation of the Faith Appeal last week enables our Catholic missionaries to do this work. So, THANK YOU. Should you wish to participate in God's mission more fully by helping to promote the work of Catholic Mission and the vision of Pope Francis, or by leaving a bequest, or by exploring what a lay missionary experience could involve, please email director.cm@perthcatholic.org.au to arrange for a chat about the possibilities.

Once again, SINCERE THANKS and God Bless you for your ongoing support and generosity.

SPECIAL FEAST DAYS

June 24 : THE NATIVITY OF ST JOHN THE BAPTIST

Celebrating a saint's birthday is something the Church hardly ever does. Generally it is the saint's death (their birth into eternal life) that is observed in the Church's calendar.

This makes John the Baptist a member of a very exclusive nativity club indeed. The other members are Mary, the Mother of Jesus (September 8), and no less than Jesus himself (December 25). The celebration of the Baptist's birth (a Solemnity) far outranks that of his martyrdom (a memorial August 29).

The preface for today tells us - "His birth brought great rejoicing; even in the womb he leapt for joy at the coming of human salvation."

June 28 : THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS

This devotion dates back to the Middle Ages. It recalls the mystery of God who is love, and honours the heart of Jesus as the source and centre of the incarnate love of God.

June 29 : SAINTS PETER AND PAUL

This date commemorates the martyrdoms of Peter the 'Chief of the apostles' and Paul the 'apostle to the Gentiles'. Both died as martyrs at Rome under Nero, between 64-67. They are remembered for their faith, their courage, and their leadership during the difficult days of the birth of the Church.
