VALE JOHN KOBELKE

The death of John Kobelke last weekend is a deep loss to the Doubleview parish.

Over many years his work for the church and in the wider community was highly valued.

John served as a Western Australian parliamentarian for two decades and distinguished himself in various ministerial portfolios in the Gallop and Carpenter Governments.

He and his wife Stephanie have resided in Wembley Downs for a long time.

As a parishioner, John displayed the same qualities that endeared him to so many people during his public life: decency, humanity, wisdom and humility.

For the last four years John has been a Director of the Our Lady of the Rosary Foundation. In this role, he was greatly respected for his wise counsel, his quiet ability to get things done and his dedication to securing the future of our church building.

People from all walks of life found him friendly and approachable. He quietly and effectively supported numerous causes, living his faith among us.

His passing leaves us the poorer.

Fr Peter joins with all our parishioners in conveying sympathy to Stephanie and John's family.

VALE ADELE (DEL) DUFFY

We offer our deepest sympathy to Dan Duffy and his family on the passing of their much loved wife and mother, Del. The Duffy family were long time members of our parish before they moved interstate. Del was a much liked 'quiet achiever' while Dan served on the Parish Council for about six years

The family invite parishioners to join them in prayer for Del at the Memorial Mass being held in our church for her this Tuesday 2nd July at 10.30am.

FUNERAL NOTICE

The funeral mass for the late John Kobelke will be held in our church on Thursday 4th July at 10.30am

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE

As the time drew near for him to be taken up to heaven, Jesus resolutely took the road for Jerusalem and sent messengers ahead of him. These set out, and they went into a Samaritan village to make preparations for him, but the people would not receive him because he was making for Jerusalem. Seeing this, the disciples James and John said, 'Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to burn them up?' But he turned and rebuked them, and they went off to another village.

As they travelled along they met a man on the road who said to him, 'I will follow you wherever you go.' Jesus answered, 'Foxes have holes and the birds of air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.'

Another to whom he said, 'Follow me,' replied, 'Let me go and bury my father first.' But he answered, 'Leave the dead to bury the dead; your duty is to go and spread the news of the kingdom of God.'

Another said, 'I will follow you, sir, but first let me go and say good-bye to my people at home.' Jesus said to him, 'Once the hand is laid on the plough, no one who looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.'

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

Just as Elijah was taken up to heaven (2Kgs 2:1) and as the suffering servant "set his face like flint" (Is 50:7), so Jesus "resolutely took the road for Jerusalem" as the time approached for him "to be taken up to heaven". This sentence, so layered with meaning, serves as a condensed overture for Luke's next ten chapters, his unique account of Jesus' journey to Jerusalem. It is not the geographic travel that matters so much for Luke as the destination and the teaching Jesus gives along the way.

Ominously Jesus meets immediate rejection by the Samaritans, prophetically anticipating the rejection he will experience at the hands of his own people. The uncompromising response Jesus gives to his three would-be followers reflects his own unwavering determination to see his mission through to its completion. The message is clear: discipleship is costly and must be unconditional.

THE E-RECORD

Archbishop Timothy Costelloe speaks about why he believes in God.

"I was born and grew up in a faithful Catholic family and had the enormous benefit of a good Catholic education.

Belief in God was, in a sense, the unspoken foundation of our family's life and equally the foundation of the schools I attended. And of course, in the Australia of the 1950s and 1960s, belief in God was also the "default position" of almost everyone, even if formal religious practice was already beginning to decline.

In the Australia of 2019, this unquestioned belief in God is no longer as widespread as it was and many people of faith now find themselves challenged by what we might call the "practical atheism" of some of their family members, their friends, work-colleagues, and the wider society in which we live. And so we find ourselves asking if faith in God is reasonable, or sustainable, or relevant in today's world.

Why believe in God? Because, at least for me, it is the only way to make sense of the world in which I live, the people whom I encounter, and the depths of longing and hope within me that I refuse to believe are destined to be for ever unfulfilled."

SPECIAL FEAST DAY

July 3: SAINT THOMAS, APOSTLE

Thomas, called the 'Twin' was one of the twelve chosen by Jesus. He is remembered for his initial disbelief in the resurrection and his subsequent proclamation of faith upon seeing the resurrected Christ: 'My Lord and my God' (John 20:28). An early tradition venerates him as the Apostle of India.

"CARE FOR LIFE"

Most Rev Timothy Costelloe has asked the Catholic people of the Archdiocese to contact their local member of Parliament regarding the WA Government's wishes to legalise assisted suicide and euthanasia. You are encouraged to write a letter to your MP expressing your view. There are leaflets available on the table in the foyer to assist you in identifying your Upper and Lower House representatives.
