FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

& SEA SUNDAY

"The Catholic community will once again show its appreciation for the work of seafarers across the country this Sea Sunday, 14 July.

Stella Maris, also known as Apostleship of the Sea, is the pontifical body with specific pastoral care responsibility for seafarers, sailors and all people who work at sea – with 11 centres around Australia and more than 300 ports in more than 30 countries around the world. ...

Stella Maris chaplains and volunteers visit about 70,000 ships in ports around the world.

Collectively, they speak to ships' crews, offer friendship, arrange Mass and attend Mass with them, listen to their needs, and provide internet access so they can contact their families. ..."

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL
ACCORDING TO LUKE

There was a lawyer who, to disconcert Jesus, stood up and said to him, 'Master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' He said to him, 'What is written in the law? What do you read there?' He replied, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbour as yourself.' 'You have answered right,' said Jesus. 'Do this and life is yours.'

But the man was anxious to justify himself and said to Jesus, 'And who is my neighbour?' Jesus replied, 'A man was once on his way down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell into the hands of brigands; they took all he had, beat him and then made off, leaving him half dead. Now a priest happened to be travelling down the same road, but when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. In the same way a Levite who came to the place saw him, and passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan traveller who came upon him was moved with compassion when he saw him. He went up and bandaged his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them. He then lifted him on to his own mount, carried him to the inn and looked after him. Next day, he took out two denarii and handed them to the innkeeper. "Look after him," he said "and on my way back I will make good any extra expense you have." Which of these three, do you think, proved himself a neighbour to the man who fell in the brigands' hands?' 'The one who took pity on him' he replied. Jesus said to him, 'Go, and do the same yourself.'
