TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today we hear from one of the most tortured personalities in the whole of the scriptures, the prophet Jeremiah. His unwelcome message of submission to the imperial power of Babylon made him the target not just of vilification but of murderous plots on his life. He does not hesitate to lament his invidious situation and complain loud and long before God. Could anyone be more different from Jeremiah than Australia's own Mary Mackillop? Her acceptance of the cross and submission to God's will led her to write: "Whatever troubles may be before you, accept them bravely, remembering whom you are trying to follow. Do not be afraid. Love one another, bear with one another, and let charity guide you all your life. God will reward you as only He can". No Jeremiah-like protest here! So we should say, "It takes all sorts to make the kingdom of God."

PARISHIONER CONTACT DETAILS

To enable a group email to be sent to all parishioners when the need arises, it would be appreciated if you could email Kaye with your e-address.

If you are on the following rosters you need not do anything as we already have that information:

- Acolytes and EOMoHC (Special Ministers)
- Altar Society
- Counters
- Proclaimers

PLANNED GIVING ENVELOPES 20/21

Boxes of the Planned Giving Envelopes are available for collection at the back of the church.

It would be appreciated, if possible, to receive all the current financial year's contributions by the week ending the 28th June 2020.

If any parishioner would like to join the planned giving programme or change to contributing by direct debit or credit card to reduce the handling of cash, please contact Doris Zambonetti on 0428 441 566 or doriszambonetti@gmail.com

Thank you for your ongoing generous support of our parish.

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

Jesus instructed the Twelve as follows: 'Do not be afraid. For everything that is now covered will be uncovered, and everything now hidden will be made clear. What I say to you in the dark, tell in the daylight; what you hear in whispers, proclaim from the house-tops.

Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul, fear him rather who can destroy both body and soul in hell. Can you not buy two sparrows for a penny? And yet not one falls to the ground without your Father knowing. Why, every hair on your head has been counted. So there is no need to be afraid; you are worth more than hundreds of sparrows.

'So if anyone declares himself for me in the presence of men, I will declare myself for him in the presence of my Father in heaven. But the one who disowns me in the presence of men, I will disown in the presence of my Father in heaven.'

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

The gospel reading today serves to warn the Twelve at the very outset of their mission about the opposition they will face. Although permeated by ominous references, Jesus' teaching is affirmative. The apostles are to speak out boldly; whatever human beings may threaten to do, they are not to be afraid. This injunction recurs like a refrain three times. All the same, there is an appropriate fear — holy awe for the one who has ultimate power over life and death. In a world in which religious persecution is rife, not least against Christian believers, this is timely teaching.

THE NATIVITY OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

24 JUNE

John the Baptist spent his adult life preparing the way for Jesus, and proclaiming that "the Kingdom of Heaven is close at hand." He was born to Zachary and Elizabeth, an elderly married couple. The Angel Gabriel had visited Zachary and told him that his wife would bear a child, even though she was already past the child-bearing age.

Elizabeth was Mary's cousin and Zachary was a priest of the Temple in Jerusalem. As a baby in the womb, John recognized Jesus' presence in Mary's womb when Mary visited Elizabeth soon after the Annunciation. Both women were pregnant at the same time.

John was probably born at Ain-Karim, which is southwest of Jerusalem. As a young adult, he lived as a hermit in the desert of Judea until about A.D. 27. When he was 30, he began to preach on the banks of the Jordan, calling for repentance and baptising people in the river waters. When Jesus came to John to be baptised, John recognised Jesus as the Messiah and baptised Him, saying: "It is I who need baptism from you."

John continued to preach after Jesus was baptised, but was imprisoned not long after by Herod Antipas, after he denounced the king's adulterous marriage with Herodias, wife of his half-brother Philip.

John was beheaded at the request of Salome, daughter of Herodias. Many came to know Jesus through John, namely the Apostles Andrew and John.

DOMINICAN FATHERS APPEALS

PLEASE SUPPORT THE DOMINICAN FRIARS SICKNESS & RETIREMENT FUND

To provide Dominican priests and brothers with relief in circumstances caused by sickness, old age and retirement. Dominican brothers by virtue of their vow of poverty have not received an income of their own during their lifetime of service to the community and as such are not able to provide for themselves in times of sickness and retirement. We appreciate your prayers and your support!

Tax deductible donations may be made by cheque (to "Dominican Province of the Assumption") or EFT:
Account Name: Dominican Fathers Retirement & Sickness Fund

PLEASE SUPPORT THE DOMINICAN FRIARS SOLOMON ISLANDS & PAPUA NEW GUINEA MISSION

In 1956, the first group of Dominican priests, brothers, sisters and lay missionaries was blessed and departed from Strathfield in Sydney for the Solomon Islands. In 1979, a new foundation was made at Bomana, in Papua New Guinea. Here, young friars are formed to bring the light of Christ to the people of Melanesia. Your support is necessary to ensure the continuing of our mission stations, chaplaincies and parish apostolates in Melanesia. Please assist us in bringing the light and love of Christ to our brothers and sisters in the Solomon Islands and Papua New Guinea.

DOMINICAN STUDIUM LIBRARY FUND

Please support our library to form our future
Dominican priests and brothers.

The Dominican Studium Library Fund was established in 2018 to assist in the maintenance and acquisition of crucial resources (including books, periodicals, electronic media, equipment), and other projects aimed at ensuring the studium library continues to be a valuable resource for the formation of priests and brothers in the Dominican Province of the Assumption.

Your assistance in maintaining this crucial resource for our students and for the promulgation of the light of truth in our province is greatly appreciated.

Contributions of $10 and over are fully tax deductible.
Thank you for your support! May the peace of the Lord be with you!

UFO CRAFT BACK IN ACTION

We are back meeting in the Parish Community Centre at 9.30—11.30am on the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays of the month. We have cleaning and reporting processes in place to keep us safe under W A Government rules.

The next meeting is June 24.

Early May I was able to deliver 27 completed rugs and a variety of headwear and scarves to the St Vincent de Paul shop in Erindale Road. A power point presentation of the rugs is available to anyone who sends me their email address.

Already another five rugs have been brought in and many are under way. If you have knitted squares we would be happy to receive them to complete some colourful Snuggly Rugglys with our present collection. Why not come along and join us for a session?
