TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We are reminded today that God is more loving, generous and forgiving than we human beings could ever imagine. The ever-present danger for us as human beings is to think of God in terms of our lesser selves, to impose on God the limits of our own capacities for life and love. The word of God today tells us this is folly. The goodness of God knows no bounds.

The gospel story exposes the calculus we use in our daily lives. We measure out love on the basis of what we judge another to deserve or what we feel we can afford to give. Today we thank God for not being like us!

MESSAGE FROM POPE FRANCIS

‘People must change their relationship with nature and view it not as an “object for unscrupulous use and abuse” but as a gift they are charged by God to care for and protect.’

SOCIAL DISTANCING

Parishioners are asked to be mindful of the social distancing requirement of 1.5 metres, paying particular attention to this when queuing for Communion.

PARISH CONTRIBUTIONS

While the current Covid-19 restrictions are in place, the collection baskets will not be handed around the pews, but you can continue to support your parish by placing your contributions in the boxes on the table in the foyer.

THE RECORD

“Two Yanchep women in their 80s never imagined they would live to see their home and family business engulfed in fire, let alone in the span of just 15 minutes. But that is what happened to Cecilia Vaz and Iris Geneve when tragedy struck them and changed their lives forever on 11 December 2019.”

A READING FROM THE LETTER OF ST PAUL TO THE PHILIPPIANS

Christ will be glorified in my body, whether by my life or by my death. Life to me, of course, is Christ but then death would bring me something more, but then again, if living in this body means doing work which is having good results - I do not know what I should choose. I am caught in this dilemma: I want to be gone and be with Christ, which would be very much the better, but for me to stay alive in this body is a more urgent need for your sake.

Avoid anything in your everyday lives that would be unworthy of the gospel of Christ.

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

Jesus said to his disciples: 'The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner going out at daybreak to hire workers for his vineyard. He made an agreement with the workers for one denarius a day, and sent them to his vineyard. Going out at about the third hour he saw others standing idle in the market place and said to them "You go to my vineyard too and I will give you a fair wage." So they went. At about the sixth hour and again about the ninth hour, he went out and did the same. Then at the eleventh hour he went out and found more men standing round, and he said to them, "Why have you been standing here idle all day?" "Because no one has hired us" they answered. He said to them, "You go into my vineyard too." In the evening, the owner of the vineyard said to his bailiff "Call the workers and pay them their wages, starting with the last arrivals and ending with the first." So those who were hired at about the eleventh hour came forward and received one denarius each. When the first came, they expected to get more, but they too received one denarius each. They took it, but grumbled at the landowner. "The men who came last" they said, "have done only one hour, and you have treated them the same as us, though we have done a heavy day's work in all the heat." He answered one of them and said, "My friend, I am not being unjust to you; did we not agree on one denarius? Take your earnings and go. I choose to pay the last-comer as much as I pay you. Have I no right to do what I like with my own? Why be envious because I am generous?" Thus the last will be first, and the first, last.'

OLR FOUNDATION PRESENTS:

FAMILY HISTORY DOESNT NEED TO BE HARD!

Last Wednesday, 16 September, about 25 parishioners and friends attended a talk presented by Richard Goodwin in the Rosary Community Centre. In a very interesting and entertaining presentation, Richard showed why writing a family history doesn't need to be hard. He provided many great ideas and examples of his own research and writing experiences, inspiring those who attended to start or continue writing their own family stories.

The event was hosted by the Our Lady of the Rosary Foundation and the Directors would like to thank Richard and everyone who contributed to making the event a success.
