PALM
SUNDAY

OF THE PASSION
OF THE LORD

The Palm Procession will leave from the Rosary Garden at 9:45am into the Church for 10:00am Mass.

Every year on this Sunday the story of Jesus' betrayal, passion and death is told at length. The reading is taken in turn from one of the synoptic gospels - Matthew, Mark or Luke - because we always read John's account on Good Friday. This year we read from Mark.

No two versions of the passion narrative are the same. They have much in common but differ in the detail. It is helpful to think of each evangelist as an artist painting a portrait. Portrait painters are creative artists that are not satisfied with presenting a surface likeness; they seek to uncover a deeper truth. What the produce will appear very different, even if the subject is the same.

MORNING TEA

Come and enjoy a cup of tea or coffee after the 10am Mass this Sunday.

The Paschal Triduum

The evening Mass of the Lord's Supper gets the Paschal Triduum under way. The liturgies of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil are three parts of a single whole.

Tonight's liturgy takes the familiar form of a Eucharist, but with distinctive features; the washing of hands, a special collection for the poor and the transfer of the sacrament for tomorrow's Holy Communion. The transfer offers us an invitation to prepare prayerfully for the next day's service.

There is no dismissal tonight.

The liturgy of Good Friday is both solemn and simple. The shape of the service is clear. It has three distinct components: Liturgy of the Word (with readings, homily and prayers), Adoration of the Holy Cross, and Holy Communion.

The solemnity of the celebration is reinforced by the silence with which it is surrounded.

On no other occasion in the liturgical year does a service begin and end in silence, without greeting or dismissal.

For all its solemnity, the Good Friday liturgy is not sad or mournful. On the contrary what is being celebrated is the triumph of the cross.

Fire, light, water and oil, bread and wine, a common table – these are the elemental symbols which thrill our hearts on this night of nights, the Easter Vigil.

“This is the night, when Christ broke the prison-bars of death and rose victorious from the underworld.”

This is the night of life, of light, of love. This is the night on which light blazes in the darkness, the night on which we wait and watch and listen, the night we bathe in the waters of life, the night we break bread at table with the risen Lord.

PROJECT COMPASSION: AN AUSTRALIAN ICON

For over half a century, generations of Australians have participated in Project Compassion. The initiative has raised more than $500 million since it began in 1965 – making it one of the nation's longest running charity campaigns.

For many, Project Compassion's iconic collection boxes have become a nostalgic part of their lives – a reminder around home, school, church and the community that it's time to support Caritas Australia's annual appeal.

Margaret Moriarty can't remember a time without a Project Compassion box in her house during Lent.

“Donating to poorer counties was very important to my mother and father. My children have grown up with the same iconic boxes in our home and my grandchildren are continuing the tradition,” Margaret says.

Throughout five decades of natural disasters, conflicts and crises, Caritas Australia has worked alongside vulnerable communities with the generous support of Australians. Project Compassion has also helped with access to education, health services, agricultural training and through programs that reduce maternal and infant mortality.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, local partnerships have helped Caritas Australia to respond quickly to minimise the spread of the coronavirus.

This year, Caritas Australia has presented five stories from people striving to ‘Be More’ – just a few stories amongst the millions of people who have been helped through Project Compassion.

We would like to thank generations of our supporters nationwide for their ongoing generosity, which allows us to move forward with lifesaving strategies to tackle new challenges.

Call to Prayer for Justice and Peace in Myanmar

On Palm Sunday we remember Jesus' entry into Jerusalem on a donkey. Jesus accepts death on a cross rather than engaging in violence. The contrast between the Prince of Peace and the powers and dominions of his day could not be starker. This is the basis of the Palm Sunday tradition of protest in favour of peace and non-violent alternatives for addressing social, ecological and economic and political issues.

The Office for Social Justice invites you on Palm Sunday, and beyond, to pray for justice and peace in Myanmar.

ALTAR SOCIETY

Members of the Altar Society are looking for some new helpers to join them in their work in the church. You would only be required to help with light duties every five to six weeks and it only takes about 45 minutes of your time.

If you are interested in participating, please contact Elle at the office to find what the role entails.

UFO CRAFT

Come and join us after Easter on April 14th & 28th. We are gradually building up a supply of blankets. Rugs of brightly coloured squares are bespoke for the refugee community, softer colours for babies groups — each work will be given to someone in need by our local St Vincent de Paul conference.
