PENTECOST SUNDAY

The feast of Pentecost brings the season of Easter to a glorious close. Though we hear Luke telling us today that the Spirit was bestowed fifty days after the resurrection, we know that we've already spent the entire Easter season "In the Spirit". The reason for this is made clear by the gospel reading. In John's version of events, Jesus breathed out his spirit on the disciples on the very day of his resurrection, "the first day of the week". Each writer has a theological perspective that accounts for his particular chronology.

We have not spent the last seven weeks waiting for the Spirit. The feast of Pentecost allows us to cry a final full-hearted "Alleluia!" for all the Spirit has accomplished in us and will continue to do. We pray with fresh fervour the same response to the psalm that followed the story of creation at the Easter Vigil fifty days ago: "Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth".

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

Jesus said to his disciples:

'When the advocate comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, he will be my witness.

And you too will be witnesses, because you have been with me from the outset.

'I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now. But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come.

He will glorify me, since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine. Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said: All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.'

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

For the gospel text we return to Jesus' words of farewell to his disciples. Today's passage is a combination of two extracts - two verses from Chapter 15 and four from Chapter 16 - both of which make reference to the "Spirit of truth".

The horizons are vast. They extend from the depths of God, where Father, Son and Spirit enjoy an unlimited communion of life to the depths of the disciples' hearts where the Spirit of truth teaches them all he knows. But this treasure is to remain hidden from sight. Just as the Spirit bears witness to the Son, so too will the disciples bear witness. And just as the Spirit is sent, so too are the disciples. A little further on Jesus prays to the Father, "As you have sent me into the world, so I have sent them in to the world."

Thus we come to the end of the Easter season, but not to the end of the mission. The mystery of divine love made manifest in the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus and in the sending of the Spirit is ever present. We have revelled in the Spirit these fifty days, and still we pray, "Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth".

PRAYER VIDEO TO HONOUR THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF SR IRENE MCCORMACK, RSJ

Last Friday, May 21 was the 30th anniversary of Josephite Sr Irene McCormack's death whilst serving as a missionary in Peru after 25 years of service to Catholic education in WA. Born in the Wheatbelt town of Trayning, Sr Irene is our very own, an inspiration for our West Australian Catholic community. The link below is to a prayer video compiled by student leaders from 4 Catholic schools in Perth who reflect on the gift of Sr Irene's life as a life offered for love of God and love for the poor of our world. As our young leaders powerfully suggest, hers is a life and legacy for all of us to honour and feel affirmed in our own calling to be followers of Christ in our everyday lives. We invite parishioners to reflect on this prayer video during this weekend or on any other appropriate day that follows in remembrance of Sr Irene and all those who offer their lives for love in overseas missionary service, especially during these COVID-19 times.

UFO CRAFT RUGS 2021 HANDOVER

On May 12th we had 9 members present as we handed over our 2021 rugs to St Vincent de Paul representatives, Fred and Stephanie.

With 4 rugs brought in to this meeting our tally for 2021 so far is 22.

Fred told us that that the warmth of these rugs was not only the cosiness but the love individually crafted into the rug that is recognised by the recipients.

Do come along to our next meeting on 26th May, 9.30-11.30am in the parish centre and join in the love.

PRAYER FOR PLENARY COUNCIL

Come, Holy Spirit of Pentecost.
Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land.
O, God, bless and unite all your people in Australia,
and guide us on the pilgrim way of the Plenary Council.
Give us the grace to see your face in one another,
and to recognise Jesus, our companion on
the road.
Give us the courage to tell our stories,
and to speak boldly of your truth.
Give us ears to listen humbly to each other,
and a discerning heart to hear what you are saying.
Lead your Church into a hope-filled future,
that we may live the joy of the Gospel.
Through Jesus Christ our Lord,
bread for the journey from age to age.
Amen.
Our Lady Help of Christians, pray for us.
Saint Mary Mackillop, pray for us.
