THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

This feast, originally Corpus Christi, arose in thirteenth century Belgium in response to debates about the Real Presence and as a result of an upsurge in eucharistic piety. Its extension to the entire Western Church was first decreed by Urban IV in 1264. The feast celebrates the mystery of the nourishing and enduring presence of the body and blood of Christ in the Eucharist.

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL
ACCORDING TO MARK

14:12-16, 22-26

On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was sacrificed, his disciples said to Jesus 'Where do you want us to go and make the preparation for you to eat the passover?' So he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, 'Go into the city and you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him, and say to the owner of the house which he enters, "The Master says: Where is my dining room in which I can eat the passover with my disciples?" He will show you a large upper room furnished with couches, all prepared. Make the preparations for us there.' The disciples set out and went to the city and found everything as he had told them, and prepared the Passover.

And as they were eating he took some bread, and when he said the blessing he broke it and gave it to them. 'Take it,' he said 'this is my body.' Then he took a cup, and when he had returned thanks he gave it to them, and all drank from it, and he said to them, 'This is my blood, the blood of the covenant, which is to be poured out for many. I tell you solemnly, I shall not drink any more wine until the day I drink the new wine in the kingdom of God.'

After psalms had been sung they left for the Mount of Olives.

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

Today's gospel passage incorporates the preparation for Jesus' final Passover meal with his disciples and the supper narrative. It omits the intervening verses (17-21) treating of Jesus' impending betrayal.

Today's ensemble of readings focuses our attention on the symbolism of blood. The blood sprinkled by Moses on the altar and the people, seals the covenant between God and Israel. The blood of Christ, offered in perfect sacrifice, achieves redemption and establishes a new and eternal covenant. We become the people of that covenant when we drink from the cup of Christ.

THE MOST SACRED HEART
OF JESUS

FEAST DAY - JUNE 11

This devotion, which dates back to the Middle Ages, flowered in France in the seventeenth century as a result of the visions of Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque. The feast was extended to the entire Western Church by Pius IX in 1856. It recalls the mystery of God who is love, and honours the heart of Jesus as the source and centre of the incarnate love of God.

THE ST VINCENT DE PAUL
WINTER APPEAL IS ON AGAIN.

During Mass on the 19th and 20th June a member of your Woodlands Conference will speak to you about assistance for the vulnerable in our community.

Envelopes will be provided in the church at that time.

In the meantime,

We would like to fill our pantry shelves with essential food items.

Please donate using the basket situated in the church main entrance

Items include long life milk, Vegemite, tinned food including meat meals, fish, vegetables, baked beans, soup and fruit.

REMEMBERING THE MOTHER OF MARY MACKILLOP

Sunday 30 May marked the 130th anniversary of the death of St Mary MacKillop's mother, Flora MacKillop.

Flora MacKillop gave birth to eight children. Three she gave to God in the priesthood and religious life. She mourned five who were lost before they turned thirty, one while still a baby.

No stranger to sorrows, Flora's life ended suddenly in the notorious wreck of the Ly-ee-moon off the coast of Eden, on the south coast of New South Wales.

Yet we do not remember Flora as a tragic figure. Rather we recall her great qualities of motherhood and acclaim a stoic woman who devoted her whole life to God, her family, and to the sisters who joined St Mary MacKillop in her work.

Flora travelled widely after Mary had established her new congregation, sometimes taking her daughter Annie.

On her travels she would stay with relations and family friends in different parts of western Victoria, as well as Melbourne and at Melrose near the You Yangs.

Flora decided to travel to Sydney in 1886 to help Mary with a fundraising bazaar. It was common at the time to travel by ship from Melbourne up the east coast to Port Jackson or Sydney Harbour.

Mary was expecting Flora's arrival, but tragedy struck. Seventy-one passengers drowned when the Ly-ee-moon was dashed against a reef. The only survivor was a young boy of 11, pulled unconscious through a porthole.
