A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL
ACCORDING TO MARK

After leaving the mountain Jesus and his disciples made their way through Galilee; and he did not want anyone to know, because he was instructing his disciples; he was telling them, 'The Son of Man will be delivered into the hands of men; they will put him to death; and three days after he has been put to death he will rise again.' But they did not understand what he said and were afraid to ask him.

They came to Capernaum, and when he was in the house he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the road?' They said nothing because they had been arguing which of them was the greatest. So he sat down, called the Twelve to him and said, 'If anyone wants to be first, he must make himself last of all and servant of all.' He then took a little child, set him in front of them, put his arms round him, and said to them, 'Anyone who welcomes one of these little children in my name, welcomes me; and anyone who welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.'

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

Jesus attempts to instruct his disciples about his true identity and impending fate, but typically "they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him".

Perhaps they did understand all too well, for it immediately becomes evident that the disciples are ambitious for power and glory, not humiliation and suffering. Jesus' teaching is unambiguous. The disciples are to devote themselves to service, not aggrandisement. As the gospel now reads, the child becomes the symbol of those who have no favours to grant in return for being paid attention.

The reading is a dynamic combination of action and dialogue. What Jesus has to say is serious!

14TH CENTURY NUN'S PRAYER

Lord, Thou knowest better than I know myself that I am growing older and will someday day be old.

Keep me from the fatal habit of thinking I must say something on every subject and on every occasion.

Release me from craving to straighten out everybody's affairs.

Make me thoughtful but not moody; helpful but not bossy.

With my vast store of wisdom it seems a pity not to use it all but Thou knowest Lord, that I want a few friends at the end.

Keep my mind free from the recital of endless details; give me wings to get to the point.

Seal my lips of my aches and pains. They are increasing and love of rehearsing them is becoming sweeter as the years go by.

I do not ask for grace enough to enjoy the tales of other's pains, but help me to endure them with patience.

I dare not ask for improved memory, but for a growing humility and less cocksureness when my memory seems to clash with the memories of others.

Teach me the glorious lesson that occasionally I may be mistaken.

Keep me reasonably sweet; I do not want to be a Saint — some of them are so hard to live with — but a sour old person is one of the crowning works of the devil.

Give me the ability to see good things in unexpected places, and talents in unexpected people. And, give me, O Lord, the grace to tell them so. Amen.

CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF PERTH
SAFEGUARDING OFFICE

To celebrate National Child Protection Week this year, the Catholic Archdiocese of Perth Safeguarding Office has created a storybook titled:

This is a rhyming storybook written by Andrea Musulin, Safeguarding Director, for children aged 3-6 years.

The storybook is an age-appropriate tool to educate children in the home, in churches or in the classroom. It teaches children that, when it comes to their bodies, God created boundaries and assures them that is OK to tell a trusted adult if someone touches them inappropriately. This book provides simple but powerful, developmentally appropriate messages that every child needs to know about their body.

All Catholic parents are encouraged to order a free copy of this storybook.

To order, take a card from the table in the foyer, complete and return to Elle in the Parish Office.

Orders will be filled and returned to the Parish for your collection.

The Vinnies pantry is running very low!! If you could donate a couple of pantry items to help those in need, it would be greatly appreciated. Items can be placed in the basket in the foyer of the church.

SATURDAY NIGHT WINE & CHEESE

Our Wine & Cheese gatherings after the 6pm Mass on the Saturday of the first Sunday of the month are enjoyed by many parishioners. As a result, our red wine stocks are rather depleted - donations would be enthusiastically received!
