A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MARK

Returning from the district of Tyre, Jesus went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, right through the Decapolis region. And they brought him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they asked him to lay his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, put his fingers into the man's ears and touched his tongue with spittle. Then looking up to heaven he sighed; and he said to him, 'Ephphatha,' that is, 'Be opened.' And his ears were opened, and the ligament of his tongue was loosened and he spoke clearly. And Jesus ordered them to tell no one about it, but the more he insisted, the more widely they published it. Their admiration was unbounded. 'He has done all things well,' they said 'he makes the deaf hear and the dumb speak.'

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

In Mark's gospel today there are two indications of Jesus' wish to avoid being characterised as no more than an itinerant healer. He takes the afflicted man aside to cure him in private, and then forbids everyone to say anything about it (to no avail). Mark's constant intent is on getting his readers to see Jesus as the Crucified Messiah, not as a wonder-worker.

Jesus actions — putting his fingers in the man's ears and touching his tongue with spittle — are firmly in the Catholic sacramental tradition. It is no wonder that this gesture of Jesus, along with the word that accompanies it, has found its way into the rite of baptism.

The crowd's admiring acclamation of Jesus draws on the glorious vision of renewal in Isaiah 35 that served as the first reading. The message is clear: all that the prophet promised to the exiled Israelites has come to fulfilment in Jesus.

Fr John Neill OP was a founding Trustee-Governor of the University of Notre Dame Australia and will be remembered as a visionary leader who devoted his life to the service of the Church and education.

He passed away Saturday 22 August aged 89.

THE ORIGINS OF OUR FAITH: WEEKLY GATHERINGS, COMMUNITY AND PERSECUTION IN THE EARLY CHURCH
Thursday 9 September 2.30 pm to 4.30 pm
Newman Siena Centre (Clune Lecture Theatre).

The first centuries of the life of the Church laid the groundwork on which Christian identity was built. The zeal, accomplishments, struggles, and, above all, faith of the early Christians gave the Church the impetus it needed to grow and spread throughout the known world. What inspired the early Christians to persist with their faith, often in the face of the hostility and persecution of the Roman Empire? This talk will focus on the Jewish roots of Christianity, the creation of the first "house churches", and those seminal works of the Fathers of the Church that shaped Christian identity and thought. CEWA Ongoing Renewal: this course has been approved for Knowledge. Cost: Free of Charge Presenter: Dr Marco Ceccarelli.

JOURNEY THROUGH THE OLD TESTAMENT: THE MESSAGE OF THE PROPHETS

Thursdays, 9 Sep to 23 Sept - 10 am to 11.30 am (four sessions) Newman Siena Centre (Clune Lecture Theatre).

In key moments of Israel's history, God speaks to his people through his prophets. These messages can be mysterious and confusing, especially since it can be hard to understand their context. This course will explore the historical context of the Old Testament prophets, some of the key themes and images that the prophets use, and, most importantly, examine how those messages are relevant to us today and how we can respond to them. CEWA Ongoing Renewal: this course has been approved for Knowledge. Cost: $30. Presenter: Mrs Laura Firth.

Further information on these or other courses, or to register, go to <https://cfe.org.au> or email cfe@perthcatholic.org.au, or call 08 9241 5221.

CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF PERTH
SAFEGUARDING PROGRAM

Protecting God's Children Parent Workshop

At the very heart of the Safeguarding Program is our commitment to the principle that children have an absolute right to physical, spiritual and psychological safety at all times, and that the Church, as a Christian institution, should now and in the future be in the forefront of efforts to make this a reality.

The Parent Workshop is offered, not only to Catholic parents but to all who might find it useful as a practical and informative opportunity to help respond to their deeply felt desire.

NATIONAL CHILD PROTECTION WEEK

To celebrate National Child Protection Week this year, the Catholic Archdiocese of Perth Safeguarding Office as created a storybook titled:

This is a rhyming storybook written by Andrea Musulin, Safeguarding Director, for children aged 3-6 years.

The storybook is an age-appropriate tool to educate children in the home, in churches or in the classroom. It teaches children that, when it comes to their bodies, God created boundaries and assures them that is OK to tell a trusted adult if someone touches them inappropriately. This book provides simple but powerful, developmentally appropriate messages that every child needs to know about their body

All catholic parents are encouraged to order a free copy of this storybook.

To order, take a card from the table in the foyer, complete and return to Elle in the Parish Office.

Order will be filled and returned to the Parish for your collection.
