A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MARK

One of the scribes came up to Jesus and put a question to him, 'Which is the first of all the commandments?' Jesus replied, 'This is the first: Listen Israel, the Lord our God is the one Lord, and you must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind and with all your strength. The second is this: You must love your neighbour as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these.' The scribe said to him, 'Well spoken master; what you have said is true: that he is one and there is no other. To love with all your heart, with all your understanding and strength and to love your neighbour as yourself, this is far more important than any holocaust or sacrifice.' Jesus, seeing how wisely he had spoken said, 'You are not far from the kingdom of God.' And after that no one dared to question him any more

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

The gospel for today is so familiar that many could recite it off by heart. It's Jesus' answer to the often-asked question of his day: "Which is the first of all the commandments?" It is noteworthy that the scribe who puts the question to Jesus is depicted positively. He is making a genuine enquiry, not trying to trap Jesus.

Jesus' reply links the overriding command to love God (as prescribed in the first reading) with the command to love neighbour as spelt out in Leviticus 19:18. He is therefore not inventing a new command as such. Nor may he have been the first to forge such a link. But he articulates it clearly and lives it unconditionally. The scribe's response echoes the preaching of the prophets and earns him Jesus' commendation.

The Parish AGM will be held after the 10am Mass on 21 November. You are invited to enjoy a cup of tea or coffee before the AGM commences.

Presenter: Mr Joe Tedesco

Christmas is a special time of year. The weeks leading up to the special holiday have a certain feel, both festive and frantic as people prepare for the big day. It is well understood that the spiritual gift of Christmas can be easily missed amongst all the clamour of the season.

Fortunately, the liturgical season of Advent presents us with some key teachings that help us get the most out of Christmas and not miss the treasured gift that is at the heart of it all. This talk will focus on some of the key biblical texts drawn on through Advent. Reflecting on them will open up how we can get the most out of Christmas and out of our faith in general.
