Today we celebrate prison ministry in Australia. In 2016, the Jubilee Year for People in Prison, Pope Francis told a gathering of prison chaplains: "The task of a chaplain is to let the prisoners know that the Lord is inside them. No cell is so isolated that it can keep the Lord out. He is there. He cries with them, works with them, hopes with them. His paternal and maternal love arrives everywhere." We offer our prayers and thanks to prison chaplains throughout Australia.

The Parish AGM will be held after the 10am Mass on 21 November. You are invited to enjoy a cup of tea or coffee before the AGM commences.

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MARK

In his teaching Jesus said, 'Beware of the scribes who like to walk about in long robes, to be greeted obsequiously in the market squares, to take the front seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets; these are the men who swallow the property of widows, while making a show of lengthy prayers. The more severe will be the sentence they receive.

He sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the treasury, and many of the rich put in a great deal. A poor widow came and put in two small coins, the equivalent of a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, this poor widow has put more in than all who have contributed to the treasury; for they have all put in money they had over, but she, from the little she had, has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on.'

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

On his way to Jerusalem Jesus had responded to the ambitions of his disciples by declaring that he had come not "to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many". Now that he is in the holy city preparing for his fate he reiterates his position. He voices sharp criticism of religious leaders in the case the scribes, who store up their status at the expense of the poor. Then he highlights the astonishing generosity of the poor widow.

Jesus' observation that the widow "has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on" can be interpreted in two different ways. He could be praising her extraordinary trust in and devotion to God, anticipating the imminent unconditional surrender of his own life into God's hands. Or he could be intensifying his criticism of the scribes for persuading such a vulnerable woman to give away the last coins she had to survive on.

Christmas is a special time of year. The weeks leading up to the special holiday have a certain feel, both festive and frantic as people prepare for the big day. It is well understood that the spiritual gift of Christmas can be easily missed amongst all the clamour of the season.

Fortunately, the liturgical season of Advent presents us with some key teachings that help us get the most out of Christmas and not miss the treasured gift that is at the heart of it all.

This talk will focus on some of the key biblical texts drawn on through Advent. Reflecting on them will open up how we can get the most out of Christmas and out of our faith in general.
