When we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King, we are not only celebrating that Christ is a king, but that Christ is a king of a particular kind. We are challenged to live and trust in a sort of kingship that is not easily grasped. It requires that we lay aside, both in thought and practice, what we normally attribute to authority – worldly power, prestige and exclusivity. To trust less what the world tells us is powerful and worthy and more what God indicates it is. To align ourselves to the only authority that matters, the one that can be harder to find, but the one that we are ultimately intended to sit under and the only one that will ultimately last. Excerpt from a reflection by Joe Tedesco

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

'Are you the king of the Jews?' Pilate asked. Jesus replied, 'Do you ask this of your own accord, or have others spoken to you about me?' Pilate answered, 'Am I a Jew? It is your own people and the chief priests who have handed you over to me: what have you done?' Jesus replied, 'Mine is not a kingdom of this world; if my kingdom were of this world, my men would have fought to prevent my being surrendered to the Jews. But my kingdom is not of this kind.' 'So you are a king then?' said Pilate. 'It is you who say it' answered Jesus. 'Yes, I am a king. I was born for this, I came into the world for this; to bear witness to the truth; and all who are on the side of truth listen to my voice.'

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

The final scripture reading of the liturgical year harks back to Good Friday. It is an excerpt from John's account of the passion. Today's reading presents the first exchange between Pilate and Jesus inside the fortress. The key issue emerges: the true identity of Jesus and the nature of his kingship. As is generally the case in the dialogues of John's gospel, Jesus' conversation partner fails to grasp the true meaning of what is being said. Pilate's uncomprehending replies give Jesus the opportunity to teach even more profoundly. Today's gospel reading features a short but crucial segment of the passion narrative that may be lost in the full narrative on Good Friday.

Advent 2021 – Preparing for the Coming of the Saviour

When: Thursday, 25 November

From: 7:30pm – 8:30pm

Presenter: Mr Joe Tedesco

Location: Doubleview Parish,
17 Angelico Street, Woodlands

Christmas is a special time of year. The weeks leading up to the special holiday have a certain feel, both festive and frantic as people prepare for the big day. It is well understood that the spiritual gift of Christmas can be easily missed amongst all the clamour of the season.

Fortunately, the liturgical season of Advent presents us with some key teachings that help us get the most out of Christmas and not miss the treasured gift that is at the heart of it all.

This talk will focus on some of the key biblical texts drawn on through Advent. Reflecting on them will open up how we can get the most out of Christmas and out of our faith in general.

SPECIAL FEAST

24 November: SAINTS ANDREW DUNG-LAC AND COMPANIONS

Andrew was born in 1795. He was baptised at the age of fifteen, worked first as a lay missionary and then as a diocesan presbyter before being beheaded at Hanoi, Vietnam in 1839 (aged 44). He is listed among 117 canonised martyrs who died in Vietnam between 1820 and 1862 - ninety-six Vietnamese, eleven Spanish Dominicans, and ten presbyters from the Paris Foreign Mission Society. Andrew and his Companions are remembered as representatives of the thousands of Christians tortured and martyred in Vietnam between the seventeenth and nineteenth centuries: bishops, presbyters, religious, and lay people, both children and adults.
