A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE

Jesus said to his disciples: 'There will be signs in the sun and moon and stars; on earth nations in agony, bewildered by the clamour of the ocean and its waves; men dying of fear as they await what menaces the world, for the powers of heaven will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. When these things begin to take place, stand erect, hold your heads high, because your liberation is near at hand.'

'Watch yourselves, or your hearts will be coarsened with debauchery and drunkenness and the cares of life, and that day will be sprung on you suddenly, like a trap. For it will come down on every living man on the face of the earth. Stay awake, praying at all times for the strength to survive all that is going to happen, and to stand with confidence before the Son of Man.'

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

The reading falls into two clear halves. The ominous tone of each part is offset by final words of encouragement. The first concludes with the promise of liberation. Faithful disciples can await the end with heads held high. The second, while urging them to stay awake and pray for the strength to survive, offers the prospect of standing up "with confidence before the Son of Man."

CHRISTMAS VIGIL CHOIR PRACTICE

On Monday 6 December we will be starting choir practice for Christmas Eve Carols and Mass. We warmly welcome anyone who would like to join us. For more information please contact Helen on Ph 0422 965 696.

ADVENT REFLECTION — APOLOGY

The Parish Pastoral Council would like to apologise for the cancellation of the Advent Reflection Evening planned for last Thursday 25 November. Unfortunately, the Centre for Faith Enrichment advised that they were unable to deliver the session. Those who had registered were notified but a number of people turned up at the Rosary Centre on the night and were disappointed to find that the talk wasn't going ahead. We are sorry for the inconvenience and that we were unable to provide this opportunity to prepare for Advent. We hope to plan another event in the future.
