A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE

In the fifteenth year of Tiberius Caesar's reign, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judaea, Herod tetrarch of Galilee, his brother Philip tetrarch of the lands of Ituraea and Trachonitis, Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, during the pontificate of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John son of Zechariah, in the wilderness. He went through the whole Jordan district proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, as it is written in the book by the sayings of the prophet Isaiah:

A voice cries in the wilderness:
Prepare a way for the Lord,
make his paths straight.
Every valley will be filled in,
every mountain and hill be laid low,
winding ways will be straightened and rough roads made smooth.
And all mankind shall see the Salvation of God.

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

Advent is a season of patient waiting. While we wait for the story of Jesus' birth, Luke takes us some decades ahead to the preaching of John the Baptist.

John preaches the poetry of Isaiah as a reminder that his work is only the beginning, and that there is great hope on the way. Within the passage there is a contrast between the current rulers from amongst the invaders as well as the religious leaders. Rome and Temple as one, and the one who is coming from the desert, from the wilderness, from 'no place' and 'no power'. Yet no obstacle can withstand his leading all humanity straight to God!

On behalf of Fr Thi and his team from the Kwinana Parish, Fr Peter would like to thank Parishioners for their generous support for their fundraising raffle.

SOLOMON ISLANDS

Two dozen Dominican friars and sisters ministering in the Solomon Islands are safe despite three days of rioting in the capital city Honiara last week, the Australian provincial confirmed.

The Solomon Islands have a history of periodic civil unrest, including arson in the Chinatown district of Honiara, which goes back to 2001. The unrest was linked to long-standing economic jealousies between the Malaita Province and other provinces.

Dominican provincial and Carina priest Fr Anthony Walsh told The Catholic Leader that the latest period of unrest was a “resurfacing” of those old tensions.

Fr Walsh said the Dominicans live in a community near the airport, separated from the main city by a bridge, which was closed. He said what made this time different was the fires were reportedly closer to the airport than in previous periods of unrest. Thankfully, he said, the people did not have access to weapons like in previous times of unrest.

Tensions boiled over after a peaceful protest of 1000 people from Malaita Province in Honiara turned violent on Wednesday. Police reportedly descended on the protest and fired rubber bullets and tear gas into the crowd.

Since then, buildings have been stoned and set alight as chaos spread across the city and to other provinces. [Sourced from CathNews]

Please keep our Dominican family in the Solomon Islands in your prayers.

Worrying doesn't take away tomorrow's troubles.
It takes away today's peace.

THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

On December 8, we honour Mary, our Mother. The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception is a Catholic feast celebrating Mary's conception without sin. Even though this feast day occurs in the liturgical season of Advent, which prepares for the birth of Our Lord Jesus Christ, the Immaculate Conception refers to the conception of Mary in the womb of her mother, St. Anne.

Even though Mary is unique in all humanity for being born without sin, she is held up by the Church as a model for all humanity in her holiness and her purity in her willingness to accept the Plan of God for her.

Every person is called to recognise and respond to God's call to their own vocation. Mary's “Let it be done to me according to Thy Word,” in response of the Angel Gabriel's greeting, is the response required of all Christians to God's Plan.

The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception is a time to celebrate the great joy of God's gift to humanity in Mary, and to recognise with greater clarity, the truth that each and every human being has been created by God to fulfill a particular mission that he and only he can fulfill.
