A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus left the Jordan and was led by the Spirit through the wilderness, being tempted there by the devil for forty days. During that time he ate nothing and at the end he was hungry. Then the devil said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to turn into a loaf.' But Jesus replied, 'Scripture says: Man does not live on bread alone.'

Then leading him to a height, the devil showed him in a moment of time all the kingdoms of the world and said to him, 'I will give you all this power and the glory of these kingdoms, for it has been committed to me and I give it to anyone I choose. Worship me, then, and it shall all be yours.' But Jesus answered him, 'Scripture says:

You must worship the Lord your God,
and serve him alone.'

Then he led him to Jerusalem and made him stand on the parapet of the Temple. 'If you are the Son of God,' he said to him, 'throw yourself down from here, for Scripture says:

He will put his angels in charge of you
to guard you,

and again:

They will hold you up on their hands
in case you hurt your foot against a stone.'

But Jesus answered him, 'It has been said

You must not put the Lord your God to the test.'

Having exhausted all these ways of tempting him, the devil left him to return at the appointed time.

Lenten Leisure

Presented by Sr Margaret Scharf OP, D Min
Director

Dominican Institute for Spirituality

Lent is a wonderful season of the Christian year when we are invited to think more about the great love of Jesus and His journey to the cross and beyond to Resurrection. It can become a time when Christians "give up" goodies and take on holy practices. We start off well and then find ourselves struggling to hold to our commitments!

What would be another way of looking at Lent; one which may lead to a deeper experience of the mystery of God's great love for us; one that is not so much about more "doing" as it would be about the quality of "being" before God?

Join us for an evening reflection on Lent through the lens of Sabbath

Thursday 10 March 2022
7.30-8.30pm

Rosary Community Centre
17 Angelico St Woodlands
