Sr Myrtle's Diamond Jubilee

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE

As the time drew near for him to be taken up to heaven, Jesus resolutely took the road for Jerusalem and sent messengers ahead of him. These set out, and they went into a Samaritan village to make preparations for him, but the people would not receive him because he was making for Jerusalem. Seeing this, the disciples James and John said, 'Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to burn them up?' But he turned and rebuked them, and they went off to another village.

As they travelled along they met a man on the road who said to him, 'I will follow you wherever you go.' Jesus answered, 'Foxes have holes and the birds of air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.'

Another to whom he said, 'Follow me,' replied, 'Let me go and bury my father first.' But he answered, 'Leave the dead to bury the dead; your duty is to go and spread the news of the kingdom of God.'

Another said, 'I will follow you, sir, but first let me go and say good-bye to my people at home.' Jesus said to him, 'Once the hand is laid on the plough, no one who looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.'

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

Luke tells us today that Jesus “steels himself” to face his final journey. He has already warned his disciples that he will be put to death in Jerusalem. They too must be ready to face hardship and even rejection. Their trust must be in God.

And so it is with us. We keep going by remembering that God is all the time seeking to work through us. That is our great dignity, that God is so powerful that he can actually achieve his plans through us. We never have to depend on our own resources but rather on God for whom nothing is impossible, as the angel said to Mary at her Annunciation. So Jesus urges us to press on. There is a world to be saved and we all have a part in that, drawing our strength from our closeness to him.

We come to Mass to receive assurance that Jesus remains close to us and is willing to provide all the help we need.

Fr Tom.

UFO CRAFT

This month several members took up the task of making beanies. Mary, a member of the craft group and St Vincent de Paul, has delivered them to a group caring for Street Kids. The local conference of St V de P has been supplied with about 20 rugs made this year as well as some held over from 2021. Thank you to our "at home" crafters who donate through the basket at the church entrance or to our meetings in the parish centre on the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays each month at 9.30 - 11.30am . Come and join us!
