Pastoral Letter on the Fifth Plenary Council of the Catholic Church in Australia

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

The second and final assembly of the Fifth Plenary Council of the Catholic Church in Australia has concluded. After a long and intense journey of over four years the members of the Plenary Council, lay women and men, religious sisters, brothers and priests, diocesan clergy and all of Australia's active bishops (as well as four retired bishops), met together in Sydney to formulate the response of the Catholic Church in Australia to a very important and fundamental question:

What is God asking of us in Australia at this time?

In coming together in Sydney, the Members of the Plenary Council were living out in practice the way of being the Lord's Church in our land which Pope Francis assures us is the call of God to the whole Church at this moment in our history. The Pope sums up this call in one word: synodality.

It is a call, he explains, to walk together, listening carefully to each other as members of God's holy people, so that through our journeying together, our talking to each other, and our deep, respectful and humble listening to each other we might begin to discover more clearly what God is asking of his Church at this time. In the end, of course, as members of God's holy Church we must have only one aim: to live fully and faithfully our vocation as disciples of Jesus. ...

(Go to the archdiocese website <https://www.perthcatholic.org.au/Home.htm> to read the letter from Archbishop Timothy in full – there are also some copies available on the table in the foyer.)

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL
ACCORDING TO LUKE

A man in the crowd said to Jesus, 'Master, tell my brother to give me a share of our inheritance.' 'My friend,' he replied 'who appointed me your judge, or the arbitrator of your claims?' Then he said to them, 'Watch, and be on your guard against avarice of any kind, for a man's life is not made secure by what he owns, even when he has more than he needs.

Then he told them a parable: 'There was once a rich man, who, having a good harvest from his land, thought to himself, "What am I to do? I have not enough room to store my crops." Then he said, "This is what I will do: I will pull down my barns and build bigger ones, and store all my grain and my goods in them, and I will say, to my soul: 'My soul, you have plenty of good things laid by for many years to come; take things easy, eat, drink, have a good time.'" But God said to him, "Fool! This very night the demand will be made for your soul; and this hoard of yours, whose will it be then?" So it is when a man stores up treasure for himself in place of making himself rich in the sight of God."
