A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

In due course John the Baptist appeared; he preached in the wilderness of Judaea and this was his message: 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.' This was the man the prophet spoke of when he said:

A voice cries in the wilderness; Prepare a way for the Lord, make his paths straight.

This man John wore a garment made of camel-hair with a leather belt round his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. Then Jerusalem and all Judaea and the whole Jordan district made their way to him, and as they were baptised by him in the river Jordan they confessed their sins. But when he saw a number of Pharisees and Sadducees coming for baptism he said to them, 'Brood of vipers, who warned you to fly from the retribution that is to come?

But if you are repentant, produce the appropriate fruit and do not presume to tell yourself, "We have Abraham for our father," because, I tell you, God can raise children for Abraham from these stones. Even now the axe is laid to the roots of the trees, so that any tree which fails to produce good fruit will be put down and thrown on the fire. I baptise you in water for repentance, but the one who follows me is more powerful than I am, and I am not fit to carry his sandals; he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing-fan is in his hand; he will clear his threshing-floor and gather his wheat into the barn; but the chaff he will burn in a fire that will never go out.'

Dear Parishioners & Visitors,

We are on our way to somewhere different and much better than where we are now.

Reminding us of that is what I think Advent is about. If life is hard, it can be great news. If life at the moment is easy, maybe it's not so good. But one way or the other it is important to keep in mind. And if it's possible to prepare ourselves, and maybe help others to get ready for this new situation, then that makes a lot of sense, because it will last forever. That is our faith.

Our church has an Advent Wreath – on each of the four weeks of Advent we light another candle to remind ourselves that we are waiting for something to happen. Life isn't static.

Jesus will come again in glory, but in the meantime he keeps coming to us in the sacraments, in his Word read to us at Mass, in our neighbour, and even in the events of our lives. The candles remind us to recognise him as we move closer and closer to his final arrival.

We will also have a Christmas Tree at the back of the church. This reminds us that Jesus was the Father's greatest gift to our world, and it prompts us to share what we have with those who are not as fortunate as we are. So our Christmas tree is surrounded by gifts for others.

Fr. Tom
