Word of God Sunday

FEBRUARY 5, 2023

The Church in Australia celebrates the 'Sunday of the Word of God' on the first Sunday in February. Pope Francis established the day, which is devoted to "the celebration, study and dissemination" of the Word of God.

One of the primary ways in which the faithful honour God's Word in the liturgy is by faithfully listening to the proclamation of the readings and the homily, and by discerning the various ways in which God's Word applies to their lives.

An important point to remember is the Second Vatican Council's insight that Christ's presence is recognised in the actual "proclamation" of the Word, when the Church believes that Christ is present and speaking to those assembled through the words of the Church's minister or proclaimer, rather than in the physical book itself.

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

Jesus said to his disciples: 'You are the salt of the earth. But if salt becomes tasteless, what can make it salty again? It is good for nothing, and can only be thrown out to be trampled underfoot by men.

'You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill-top cannot be hidden. No one lights a lamp to put it under a tub; they put it on the lamp-stand where it shines for everyone in the house. In the same way your light must shine in the sight of men, so that, seeing your good works, they may give the praise to your Father in heaven.'

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

The conveniences of modern life are a mixed blessing for hearers of God's word. For all their value in making life easy, they weaken the capacity of biblical images to strike us with their original power. That's the case with today's images, salt and light. Refrigeration diverts attention from the critical role of salt in the ancient world, not just as a preservative but also as a valuable commodity. And the artificial lighting we have at our fingertips dulls our appreciation of the candles and torches of past ages.

For all that, salt and light can still fire our imaginations. Salt, judiciously used, adds zest to food. It's easy but sobering to reflect on whether our discipleship has zest or whether it's bland and insipid. It's equally simple and challenging to wonder how well our lives radiate the light of the gospel. The prophet Isaiah has already told us what will light up the world — the works of justice and mercy. In the end, these gospel images are meant to encourage, not discourage, us. They serve their purpose when they stir us to lively service.

ALTAR SOCIETY

We need a few more ladies (or gentlemen!) to join the Altar Society roster. Duties are primarily dusting and tidying the church - you would only be required every two months. If you can help, please contact Elle in the office.

This weekend we welcome
Louis d'Avray, Henry Fan,
Ever Ferritto, Eva Karolak,
Bastien Stevens, Olivia Vinci
& Jake Woodbury
into our faith community.
