LENTEN REFLECTION EVENING

The Parish Pastoral Council would like to invite all parishioners to a special evening on Tuesday 7 March 2023. Join Fr Greg Donovan as he leads us on a reflection on our Lenten journey. The evening will commence at 7pm with wine and cheese, followed by a presentation from 7.30 – 8.30pm.

REFLECTION ON THE READINGS

First Reading: Genesis 2:7-9, 3:1-7

'Our first reading this Sunday tells the story of the temptation in the Garden of Eden. We learn that the tempter is subtle and smooth, personified by the silken, deceptive voice of the serpent.'

Responsorial Psalm:

Be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned.

'The fourth of the penitential psalms is a personal lament over sinfulness, but also a confession of faith in God who makes us whole once more.'

Second Reading: Romans 5:12-19

'Our Second Reading this Sunday is a reflection by Paul on the obedience of Jesus to the Father's love: Jesus' obedience saves us once and for all and makes us right with God.'

Gospel Reading: Matthew 4:1-11

'Our Gospel Reading this Sunday tells the story of the temptation of Jesus in the wilderness. In this, we hear echoes of the sojourn of the Israelites in the desert for forty years. In remaining faithful to God, Jesus further establishes himself as the Son of God.'

[Doran, Anthony. "1st Sunday of Lent - 26 February 2023." Pastoral Liturgy 53, no. 2 (2022): 1-7]

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

Jesus was led by the Spirit out into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. He fasted for forty days and forty nights, after which he was very hungry, and the tempter came and said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to turn into loaves.' But he replied, 'Scripture says:

Man does not live on bread alone
but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.'

The devil then took him to the holy city and made him stand on the parapet of the Temple. 'If you are the Son of God,' he said, 'throw yourself down; for the scripture says:

He will put you in his angels' charge,
and they will support you on their hands
in case you hurt your foot against a stone.'

Jesus said to him, 'Scripture also says:

You must not put the Lord your God to the test.'

Next, taking him to a very high mountain, the devil showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendour. 'I will give you all these', he said, 'if you fall at my feet and worship me.' Then Jesus replied, 'Be off, Satan! For scripture says:

You must worship the Lord your God,
and serve him alone.'

Then the devil left him, and angels appeared and looked after him.

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

Happy events like getting married or finding a new best friend, or tragedies like the death of someone we love, can change our whole experience of life. In somewhat the same way, a deep faith in the mysteries of our religion can have a similar effect.

Today we might think particularly of our belief that Jesus, God's Son, is really one of us – like us in all things except sin. He shared our human condition and would not use his divine power to avoid life's difficulties and tragedies. That was Jesus' temptation in today's gospel – to avoid at all costs the pain of hunger and injury and powerlessness. In the garden of Gethsemane he prayed to his Father to deliver him from the suffering he was about to go through at the hands of Roman soldiers. But delivering his Son up to crucifixion was part of the Father's plan to rescue humanity from sin. Jesus willingly accepted this decision out of love for his Father and for us.

So today's gospel prompts us to consider how deeply we actually believe that Jesus was, and is still, one of us, and loves every one of us with an unchangeable divine and human love. Can that faith change our whole experience of life?

Our Hub of Remembrance

Doubleview parish is blessed to have a wonderful way of helping parishioners remember their departed loved ones.

Since 2007 the parish has enabled scores of families to honour their lost members through a memorial wall located on the south side of the church.

The main wall accommodates the ashes of deceased parishioners in niches behind plaques commemorating their lives and connections.

An auxiliary wall is used for plaques only and the adjoining Rosary Garden can host memorial stones in the vicinity of Our Lady's statue and bed of roses.

The niches are designed to accommodate customised containers of ashes and the plaques can cater for up to six lines of text. Their manufacture typically takes four to six weeks. The parish office, in consultation with the parish priest, oversees arrangements for using the memorial features.

MOTHERS PRAYERS LENTEN PROGRAM

We meet in the Parish Community Centre on Tuesday afternoons 1.30-3.00pm.

Our program this year is "Triumph" - again from the Archdiocese of Wollongong.

Come and join us any week of Lent.
