MASS TRANSPORT

Rosary Care needs more volunteers to assist with transport, especially transport to Mass. We are particularly looking for a lift to Saturday evening Mass for a gentleman who is no longer driving. Alberto just lives in Liege St. It is hoped if we have a few volunteers, you would only be needed every few weeks. Please contact Terese Johnston (Coordinator) 0458 631 174 or terese.johnston@ajsit.com

Tereesa is a Gamilaroi woman from Western Sydney who struggled with homelessness while raising her four children. Through the Baabayn Young Mums and Bubs Group, Tereesa was able to reconnect with her culture and create a better future for her children.

REFLECTION ON THE READINGS

First Reading: Genesis 12:1-4

'Every year, on the Second Sunday of Lent, we turn to Abraham, our father in faith, to learn something more of what it means to follow the Lord's call. In this reading, Abram leaves his home, trusting in God's promise.'

Responsorial Psalm:

Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

'Today's psalm is a confession of faith by the assembly in God's mercy and faithfulness, rescuing us from death and keeping us alive in famine.'

Second Reading: Timothy 1:8-10

'In this Sunday's Second Reading, Paul urges the young bishop Timothy to model his life and ministry on what he has learnt from Paul himself: bearing hardships for the sake of the Gospel, relying always on God's grace. This is good advice for us, too, as we continue our Lenten journey.'

Gospel Reading: Matthew 17:1-9

'The Transfiguration of Jesus is concerned with his identity. Having just made the second prediction of the Passion, Matthew is keen to reassure us that for Jesus, death does not mean dishonour: the one who is to be crucified is the one who is gloriously transfigured, the one to whom we must listen.'

[Doran, Anthony. "2nd Sunday of Lent - 5 March 2023." Pastoral Liturgy 53, no. 2 (2022): 1-6]

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain where they could be alone. There in their presence he was transfigured; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became as white as the light. Suddenly Moses and Elijah appeared to them; they were talking with him. Then Peter spoke to Jesus. 'Lord,' he said 'it is wonderful for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.' He was still speaking when suddenly a bright cloud cover them with shadow, and from the cloud there came a voice which said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; he enjoys my favour. Listen to him'. When they heard this, the disciples fell on their faces, overcome with fear. But Jesus came up and touched them. 'Stand up,' he said 'do not be afraid.' And when they raised their eyes they saw no one but only Jesus.

As he came down from the mountain Jesus gave them this order. 'Tell no-one about the vision until the Son of Man has risen from the death.'

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

Dear Parishioners and Visitors

The marvellous thing about the Transfiguration is that it gives us a glimpse of Jesus as both God's Son and a human being. One moment he is shining in glory on a mountain top, and in the next he is tapping the three disciples on the shoulder telling them not to be afraid.

And Peter is more puzzled than ever. If Jesus is God's Son, how can he keep telling his disciples that he is going to be arrested and put to death.

We all believe that Jesus was and still is both God and a human being. Our difficulty may be believing that we share both Jesus' divinity as well as his humanity. And sometimes it can be harder to believe that of ourselves than of other people.

At the Transfiguration the three disciples hear the voice of the Father telling them to listen to Jesus. To listen specifically to him telling them that while Jesus really is God's Son, he is destined to suffer and die in Jerusalem, and that disciples must be prepared, in some way, to share that fate. The Father will enable them to do this because they also share his divinity. Fr. Tom.
