EASTER TRIDUUM

Thursday of the Lord's Supper

Stations of the Cross

Easter Vigil of the Resurrection of the Lord

Friday of the Passion of the Lord

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

Remember Jesus' baptism by St. John the Baptist in the Jordan river? The Gospel says the Holy Spirit came down on Jesus with the grace to enable him to fulfil the task given him by his Father – to invite everyone into his Father's Kingdom, to heal and forgive sin, and show everyone by the way he lived what God was really like.

By raising Jesus from the dead the Father is now empowering him to share that same Holy Spirit with all who believe in him. That means that they will be able to carry on the same mission as Jesus. We have received the Spirit from Jesus at Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist and any other sacrament we have received. That is why we too are able to be the Body of Christ on earth - showing what God is like by the way we live.

So on the evening of the Resurrection Jesus breathes the Holy Spirit on his disciples, and they begin to breathe with the same breath that gives divine life to Jesus, the life of the Holy Spirit. And it is with that same breath that we breathe. Maybe we underestimate what we are capable of.

Fr Tom

Leading Women Sculptors

When he was building our parish church in the early 1970s, Fr Bonaventure Leahy gave deep thought to the artwork that would feature inside. He chose two of Australia's prominent female sculptors of the era to undertake commissions.

Eva Schubert, a German migrant, created the Madonna statue above the tabernacle. She and her husband ran a wood carving studio in Nunawading in Victoria. Their work appears in many churches including St Patrick's cathedral.

Austrian-born Leopoldine Mimovich, also based in Melbourne, was commissioned to create the bronze vertical triptych, the Paschal Mystery, that overlooks the altar. She also produced the building's 14 stations of the cross in the form of wood carvings.

On 13-14 May this year we will celebrate the 50th anniversary of Fr Leahy's achievements with a special Mass, morning tea and launch of a specially-commissioned book on the building and the dedicated Irishman behind it.
