Commemorative book for sale from 13 May

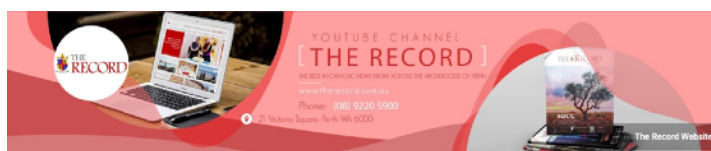

“Stone of Eternity” has been commissioned to mark the 50th anniversary of the completion and opening of Our Lady of the Rosary church in May 1973. It details the vision of its designer and builder Fr Bonaventure Leahy OP, describes the key biographic threads of his life (1920-1990) and includes interviews with contractors and parishioners who worked on the project. The book’s 15 chapters are illustrated with contemporary and historical photographs and sample documents. Readers will learn about the Doubleview parish church’s unique architecture, artworks and fittings, some of the remarkable people who accompanied Leahy on his mission and the priest’s divine inspiration, humility and personal sacrifices.

Publication proceeds after costs will go to the Our Lady of the Rosary Foundation to aid the ongoing preservation of the church building.

Order forms for copies of ‘Stone of Eternity’ are available on the tables at the entrances to the church

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL
ACCORDING TO JOHN

Jesus said to his disciples:

‘Do not let your hearts be troubled.
Trust in God still, and trust in me.
There are many rooms in my Father’s house;
if there were not, I should have told you.
I am now going to prepare a place for you, and after I have gone and prepared you a place,
I shall return to take you with me;
So that where I am you may be too.
You know the way to the place where I am going.’

Thomas said, ‘Lord, we do not know where you are going, so how can we know the way?’ Jesus said:

‘I am the Way, the Truth and the life.
No one can come to the Father except through me.
If you know me, you know my Father too.
From this moment you know him and
have seen him.’

Philip said, ‘Lord, let us see the Father and then we shall be satisfied.’ ‘Have I been with you all this time, Philip,’ said Jesus to him ‘and you still do not know me?’

‘To have seen me is to have seen the Father,
so how can you say, “Let us see the Father”?
Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me?
The words I say to you I do not speak as from myself:
It is the Father, living in me, who is doing this work.
You must believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; believe it on the evidence of this work, if for no other reason.

‘I tell you most solemnly,
whoever believes in me
will perform the same works as I do myself, he will perform even greater works,
because I am going to the Father.

Dear Parishioners and Visitors

I suspect it might be easier for children to believe that Jesus really wants their company in heaven. But that is the challenge Jesus puts before the faith of every one of us in today’s Gospel. He says that he is going to prepare a place for us in heaven, because that’s where he’s going, and he wants us to be with him.
He’s talking to his disciples, but St John, who wrote the Gospel, means us to understand that we’re included among those Jesus wants with him.

Suppose, in the middle of the summer holidays, while you’re sitting at home a bit bored and wondering what to do next, a family you’re friends with is having a wonderful holiday away from home, and they ring you and tell you they would like you to join them on their holiday.
How would that make you feel? It is not only the thought of the holiday that would probably raise your spirits, but also the fact that your friends would actually enjoy having you with them. Can we really believe that that is how Jesus feels about us? That, at any rate, is what he’s saying in today’s gospel.

Moreover, through sharing in the mystery of his Passion and Resurrection through baptism and the Eucharist, Jesus and the Father already dwell within us. So even now each of us shares the filial status of Jesus as God’s Son and is a member of the “household” of the Father.

Or, do we think Jesus is just prepared to put up with our company? Is it one of those things he feels he should do, the kind of feeling we sometimes have, without being really enthusiastic about carrying it out?

Fr. Tom.
