SPECIAL FEAST

ST THOMAS, APOSTLE - 3 JULY

‘Poor Thomas! He made one remark and has been branded as “Doubting Thomas” ever since. But if he doubted, he also believed. He made what is certainly the most explicit statement of faith in the New Testament: “My Lord and My God!” and, in so expressing his faith, gave Christians a prayer that will be said till the end of time. He also occasioned a compliment from Jesus to all later Christians: “Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed” (John 20:29).

Thomas should be equally well-known for his courage. Perhaps what he said was impetuous—since he ran, like the rest, at the showdown—but he can scarcely have been insincere when he expressed his willingness to die with Jesus. The occasion was when Jesus proposed to go to Bethany after Lazarus had died. Since Bethany was near Jerusalem, this meant walking into the very midst of his enemies and to almost certain death. Realising this, Thomas said to the other apostles, “Let us also go to die with him” (John 11:16b).

Thomas shares the lot of Peter the Impetuous, James and John, the “sons of thunder,” Philip and his foolish request to see the Father—indeed all the apostles in their weakness and lack of understanding. We must not exaggerate these facts, however, for Christ did not pick worthless men. But their human weakness again points up the fact that holiness is a gift of God, not a human creation; it is given to ordinary men and women with weaknesses; it is God who gradually transforms the weaknesses into the image of Christ, the courageous, trusting, and loving one.’

[Moore, Gerard."13th Sunday in Ordinary Time- 2 July 2023." Pastoral Liturgy 53, no. 3 (2022): 1-6.]

COMMENTARY ON THE READINGS

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

How do we react to the story of the prophet Elisha in the first reading today? He is an Old Testament prophet, and a married couple build a little room on the roof of their house which they offer him as a resting place while on his travels. In return Elisha prophesies that although they are getting on in years, they will have the child they long for. What is our reaction? Does the story suggest to us that God does wonderful things for us too. But do we recognise them as his gift, or do we see them as 'good luck', or a 'lucky break'?

Speaking of God doing wonderful things for us, the gospel today is prompting us to reflect on the fact that the most wonderful things God has done for all of us is inviting and enabling us through his grace to consider ourselves as members of God's family with God as our Father. So although we are also challenged to take up our cross daily and follow Jesus, we know that the Father is looking after us, as he looked after his Son, Jesus.

Fr. Tom.

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

Jesus instructed the Twelve as follows: 'Anyone who prefers father or mother to me is not worthy of me. Anyone who prefers son or daughter to me is not worthy of me. Anyone who does not take his cross and follow in my footsteps is not worthy of me. Anyone who finds his life will lose it; anyone who loses his life for my sake will find it.'

'Anyone who welcomes you welcomes me; and those who welcome me welcome the one who sent me.'

'Anyone who welcomes a prophet because he is a prophet will have a prophet's reward; and anyone who welcomes a holy man because he is a holy man will have a holy man's reward.'

'If anyone gives so much as a cup of cold water to one of these little ones because he is a disciple, then I tell you solemnly, he will most certainly not lose his reward.'

"Little Things"

Little drops of water,
Little grains of sand,
Make the mighty ocean
And the pleasant Land.

Thus the little minutes,
Humble though they be,
Make the mighty ages
