HYMN FOR PEACE

Today's Offertory Hymn is a prayer for peace - 'Dona Nobis Pacem' ("Grant us Peace")

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a feast for his son's wedding. He sent his servants to call those had been invited, but they would not come. Next he sent some more servants. "Tell those who have been invited," he said, "that I have my banquet all prepared, my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, everything is ready. Come to the wedding." But they were not interested: one went off to his farm, another to his business, and the rest seized his servants maltreated them and killed them. The king was furious. He dispatched his troops, destroyed those murderers and burnt their town. Then he said to his servants, "The wedding is ready; but as those who were invited proved to be unworthy, go to the crossroads in the town and invite everyone you can find to the wedding." So these servants went out on to the roads and collected together everyone they could find, bad and good alike; and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

We have all had the wonderful experience of feeling welcome in someone else's home. It might be at a party, a dinner or just a casual visit, to be made aware that our company is something valued by another person. That is no small thing. Perhaps it is best appreciated by contrasting it with the awful feeling of being unwelcome.

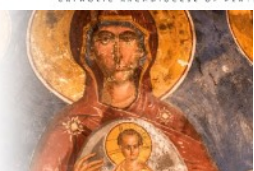

I think it can be hard to imagine that God really wants to welcome us into his company, or at the banquet in his kingdom, as Jesus calls it. But that is the challenge of today's gospel. Every one of us has been invited by God to the great party in heaven because he wants us there, to entertain us, we might say, or to share his own happiness with us. That is Jesus' image. And his role was to issue the invitations. To believe in him is to accept the invitation.

We don't talk about 'deserving' to be invited into someone's home. And there's nothing we could do to deserve to be invited to share God's company either. It's a gift. But there are a few basic ground rules. If we want to make sure we really get to the party we need to take care not to be so caught up in other matters, like the people in today's gospel, that by the time the party finally begins we have lost interest.

This morning we too are celebrating our invitation into God's kingdom. The Eucharist is God's pledge to us that one day we will be with him and share his glory. In the meantime he gives us his Son's body and blood to give us the strength to live as members of the Body of Christ, friends of God, and images of his Son's presence on earth.

Fr Tom.

Dear friends, as Advent approaches and the Church warmly encourages us to prepare for the Christmas season, the Centre for Faith Enrichment warmly encourages you to attend at least one of our faith formation courses and events. We have an abundance of learning opportunities for you this term! For more info, contact cfe@perthcatholic.org.au or phone 9278 0261. We hope to see you soon.

CELEBRATION

The Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary was celebrated last Sunday with 10am Mass, followed by morning tea in the Rosary Community Centre. The many parishioners who attended enjoyed the warm atmosphere and a delicious selection of food. Many thanks to Doris Zambonetti and Elle Aurora for organising morning tea and everyone who contributed to the event.

SYNOD 2023-24

The formation of seminarians, the Catholic Church as a welcoming home for all, migration and ecumenism arose as common themes of discussion among participants of the Assembly of the Synod of Bishops, 6 October, the Vatican said.

Divided into 35 small groups of 10 to 12 people ranging from cardinals to college students, the participants spent the third day of the synod assembly sharing what they had discussed in their small groups in the previous days and listening to individual remarks made to all synod members present. POETRY CORNER

'Who Has Seen The Wind?'

Who has seen the wind?
Neither I nor you:
But when the leaves hang trembling,
The wind is passing through.
Who has seen the wind?
Neither you nor I:
But when the trees bow down their heads,
The wind is passing by.
