A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

Addressing the people and his disciples Jesus said, 'The scribes and the Pharisees occupy the chair of Moses. You must therefore do what they tell you and listen to what they say; but do not be guided by what they do: since they do not practice what they preach. They tie up heavy burdens and lay them on men's shoulders, but will they lift a finger to move them? Not they! Everything they do is done to attract attention, like wearing broader phylacteries and longer tassels, like wanting to take the place of honour at banquets and the front seats in the synagogues, being greeted obsequiously in the market squares and having people call them Rabbi.

'You, however, must not allow yourselves to be called Rabbi, since you have only one Master, and you are all brothers. You must call no one on earth your father, since you have only one Father, and he is in heaven. Nor must you allow yourselves to be called teachers, for you have only one Teacher, the Christ. The greatest among you must be your servant. Anyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and anyone who humbles himself will be exalted.'

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

Today Jesus is telling the crowds that their religious leaders are laying heavy burdens on them, which are not intended by God. They do this by not observing Jesus' rule that in interpreting God's law priority must be given to mercy and love as the supreme criterion of what God wants. This is probably why Jesus can say that his yoke is easy and his burden is light. The primary obligations Jesus lays on people are those of justice, mercy and faith.

Jesus also objects to the practice of religious leaders who go around wanting to attract notice and receive signs of respect from others. Behind this objection is Jesus' teaching that we are all one family with God as our Father and Jesus as our brother, and the greatest among us should take the role of a servant, which is what Jesus did.

It seems very appropriate that this gospel should be read to us as the Synod meeting in Rome of bishops, clergy and laity has recently completed its meetings for 2023. One of the principal topics which has been under discussion is the existence in our Church of what is called clericalism. Pope Francis calls it a "sickness" which involves clergy exercising power without accountability and even demanding privileged treatment. This looks very close to what Jesus is condemning in the gospel.

Jesus has a clear vision of what he is calling his followers to be like. We are to live as the family of God and be servants of one another. That is a challenging demand, and so we keep coming back to Mass to be reminded of it and to ask for help.

Fr Tom.

You are all brothers and sisters.

UFO CRAFT

The last meetings for 2023 are November 8 & 22 at 9.30 - 11.30am.

This year we diversified our skills in sewing, crochet and knitting as well as rugs. Our raffles and sale of rugs for the St Vincent de Paul kitchen was wonderfully supported by parishioners at the 8 & 10 am masses.

Over the summer break, search out those unfinished objects and left over yarns and put them in the basket in February 2024.

CENTRE FOR FAITH ENRICHMENT

GOD WITH US: PREPARATION FOR ADVENT, CHRISTMAS & THE FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY

Wednesdays: 15 November - 13 December 10am to 11.30am, (4 sessions – PLEASE NOTE - NO CLASS 6 December).

Newman Siena Centre (Clune Lecture Theatre).

Christmas is a special time of year. The weeks leading up to it feel both festive and frantic. In the midst of the clamour of the season, the Church's season of Advent prepares us for the real treasure of Christmas, that God is truly with us, in the flesh. Join us as we journey with the Saints and the Three Wise Men to leave behind all that distracts us to find Christ and discover what makes us truly rich, free, and whole.

CEWA Ongoing Renewal: this course has been approved for Faith Formation.

Cost $35.00.

Presenter: Ms Natalie Thomas.

POETRY CORNER

'Leisure'

What is this life if, full of care,
We have no time to stand and stare?
No time to stand beneath the boughs
And stare as long as sheep or cows:
No time to see, when woods we pass,
Where squirrels hide their nuts in grass:
No time to see, in broad daylight,
Streams full of stars, like skies at night:
No time to turn at Beauty's glance,
And watch her feet, how they can dance:
No time to wait till her mouth can
Enrich that smile her eyes began?
A poor life this if, full of care,
We have no time to stand and stare.
