YOUR PARISH NEEDS YOUR HELP!

As we start a new year, the Parish Council would like you to consider whether you could help with the many pastoral roles in the parish - music, proclaiming, power-point operating, counting, Altar Society (dusting/tiding-up), flowers and many others. Most of the roles would only have you rostered on every three or four weeks.

Getting involved is a great way to meet other parishioners and make new friends. If you would like to find out more please contact Elle in the parish office.

Parishioners,

The parish recently purchased a defibrillator which can save a life - as long as somebody present at the time of an emergency situation knows how it works!!!

If you would like to learn how to use the unit there will be a demonstration on Thursday February 8th at 10am in the parish centre.

Numbers will be limited to about 30 so if you would like to attend please let Elle know.

Kick off the new year by joining heaps of Catholic young adults for an incredible evening of dining, dancing, and socialising! This event is for young adults, ages 18-30.

Date: Saturday, 17th February 2024

Time: 6:30 pm to 11:30 pm

Tickets: $120 per person

Venue: Pagoda Resort and Spa
[112 Melville Parade, Como]

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL
ACCORDING TO MARK

Jesus and his followers went as far as Capernaum, and as soon as the Sabbath came Jesus went to the synagogue and began to teach. And his teaching made a deep impression on them because, unlike the scribes, he taught them with authority. In their synagogue just then there was a man possessed by an unclean spirit, and it shouted, 'What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are: the Holy One of God.' But Jesus said sharply, 'Be quiet! Come out of him!' And the unclean spirit threw the man into convulsions and with a loud cry went out of him. The people were so astonished that they started asking each other what it all meant. 'Here is a teaching that is new' they said 'and with authority behind it: he gives orders even to unclean spirits and they obey him.' And his reputation rapidly spread everywhere, through all the surrounding Galilean countryside.

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

Archaeological research seems to confirm that Capernaum served as Jesus' base for his ministry in Galilee. Mark hastens to tell us that as soon as Jesus had called his first disciples his mission was in full flight. Its two defining features - teaching and healing - are on immediate display. The combined effect is to highlight Jesus' authority. His teaching is authoritative in comparison with that of the scribes and, after his own confrontation with Satan in the wilderness, Jesus' power over the demonic is definitive. Mark will continue to stress Jesus' authority and the impression it made. The fact that Jesus frees the man from the unclean spirit on the sabbath anticipates his declaration that "the Son of Man is master even of the sabbath" (2:28). ...

SPECIAL FEAST

February 2:
THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

This feast is celebrated in our Church forty days after Christmas, marking the day that Mary and Joseph would have brought Jesus into the Temple. Though Mary was pure and free from sin from the moment of her conception, and though the Son of God did not need to be redeemed, Mary and Joseph fulfilled these ritual obligations. At the heart of this celebration is the encounter of Simeon and Anna with the Christ Child in the Temple. It is in that holy encounter that Jesus' divinity is manifested by a human prophet for the first time. At His birth, the angels proclaimed His divinity to the shepherds, but in the Temple, Simeon was the first to understand and proclaim Jesus as the Saviour of the World. He also prophesied that this salvation would be accomplished by a sword of sorrow that would pierce the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

POETRY CORNER

If I can stop one heart
from breaking,
I shall not live in vain;

If I can ease one life the aching,
Or cool one pain,

Or help one fainting robin
Unto his nest again,

I shall not live in vain.
