A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL
ACCORDING TO JOHN

Jesus said to his disciples:

'I am the true vine

and my Father is the vinedresser.

Every branch in me that bears no fruit

he cuts away,

and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes

to make it bear even more.

You are pruned already,

by means of the word that I have spoken to you.

Make your home in me, as I make mine in you.

As a branch cannot bear fruit all by itself,

but must remain part of the vine,

neither can you unless you remain in me.

I am the vine,

you are the branches.

Whoever remains in me, with me in him,

bears fruit in plenty;

for cut off from me you can do nothing.

Anyone who does not remain in me

is like a branch that has been thrown away

- he withers;

these branches are collected and thrown on the fire, and they are burnt.

If you remain in me

and my words remain in you,

you may ask what you will

and you shall get it.

It is to the glory of my Father that you should bear much fruit,

and then you will be my disciples.'

Lifted Up: A violin & piano recital on the Feast of the Ascension on Sunday 12th May from 3pm in the Braham Auditorium at Trinity College, East Perth.

All welcome. Bring your mum and grand-mum along to this Mother's Day hour-long performance by two world renowned musicians in Daniel Carney on violin & Tommy Seah on piano. Tickets are available online for a donation to Catholic Mission in support of a refuge in Mongolia for mums and their children escaping domestic violence and homelessness.

COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL

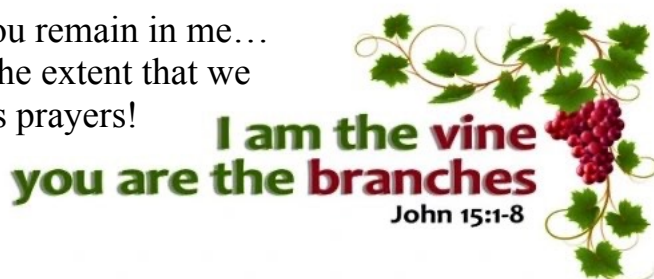

Dear Parishioners and Visitors

I think it's true that most of us like hearing about ourselves. Today's gospel is trying to help us understand ourselves, to know who we really are, and how we can make the most of all the possibilities open to us. So it should be good news, helping us to understand who we are at a deeper than usual level.

The essential message seems to be that we are part of something much bigger than ourselves – the Body of Christ, the vine which is Christ, planted and nurtured by the Father. Jesus is offering us a new way of seeing ourselves. According to his way of thinking, what we can achieve does not depend so much on our individual, natural abilities, but on our trust in the Father for whom nothing is impossible, and nothing more important than nurturing the vine which is his Son, to which all of us are attached.

That helps us to understand why Jesus can say: "If you remain in me... you may ask what you will and you shall get it." To the extent that we are part of the vine which is Jesus, our prayers are his prayers!
