POETRY CORNER

'O for a Book'

O for a book and a shady nook,
either indoors or out;
With the green leaves whispering overhead,
or the street cries all about.
Where I may read all at my ease,
both of the new and old;
For a jolly good Book whereupon to look,
is better to me than gold.

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

Jesus said to his disciples:

'When the Advocate comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who issues from the Father, he will be my witness.

And you too will be witnesses, because you have been with me from the outset.

'I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now. But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come.

He will glorify me, since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine.

Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said:

All he tells you

will be taken from what is mine'

LIVING THE GOSPEL THIS WEEK

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

One way of understanding what Pentecost is all about is to remember what Mary was told at the Annunciation, that the Holy Spirit would come upon her and so her child would be called 'Son of God.' Then later, when Jesus was a young man, he went out into the wilderness to listen to John the Baptist and be baptised by him. Immediately after his baptism, while he was praying, St Luke's Gospel tells us that the Holy Spirit descended upon him and a voice came from heaven, "You are my Son, the Beloved." And in the strength of this Spirit Jesus went on to overcome the temptations of Satan and to fulfil his Father's plan for the salvation and final happiness of humanity.

The main point is that today we celebrate Jesus' sharing that same Holy Spirit that was given to him with all those who believe in him. So, the Spirit in whose power Mary conceived the Son of God in her womb, and in whose power Jesus overcame the power of Satan and remained faithful to his Father's will throughout his life, is shared by all of us who believe in him.

The presence of the Holy Spirit within each of us is actually the continuing influence in our lives of the transforming power of the risen Christ who gives the Spirit to those who are open to receiving his gifts. It is not a gift to be kept wrapped up inside us, but a divine power and divine life, in fact, a divine Person enabling us to continue the mission of Jesus on earth. Basically, that means loving our neighbour, especially those neighbours who most need the compassion of Jesus, which is what we have to offer them.

Maybe we have more in common with Jesus than we sometimes think.
