Every year churches around the world celebrate Sea Sunday. It's a day for people to come together to pray for seafarers and fishers, and thank them for the vital role they play in all of our lives.

PRAYER FOR SEAFARERS:

Eternal Lord God, ruler of earth and sky, be pleased to receive into your protection all who go down to the sea in ships and work upon the waters. Preserve them in body and soul; prosper their labours with good success; in time of danger be their help and defence and bring them safely into port, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ETERNAL JOY TO THE SOUL.

150 YEARS OF THE RECORD

“In this special edition of The Record, we celebrate 150 years of Catholic news for the people of Perth and beyond.

The “Western Australian Catholic Record” was first published on July 6, 1874. It had its origin in a generation when there was little room for Catholic matters or Catholic opinion in the local secular press of the time. It was the sole public voice of the handful of Catholics against the bitter prejudice and intolerance of the majority who refused to Catholics a measure of justice and even ordinary civic rights...”

The Centre for Liturgy has produced the third MP4 prayer reflection called The Joy of Prayer, based on Pope Francis' Catechesis on Prayer. It is beautiful ... find it at www.liturgy.perthcatholic.org.au - click on 'prayer resources' - scroll down.

POETRY CORNER

Love's Coming

Quietly as rosebuds
Talk to the thin air,
Love came so lightly,
I knew not he was there.

Quietly as lovers
Creep at the middle moon,
Softly as players tremble
In the tears of a tune;

Quietly as lilies,
Their faint vows declare
Came the shy pilgrim:
I knew not he was there.

Quietly as tears fall
On a wild sin,
Softly as griefs call
In a violin;

Without hail or tempest,
Blue sword or flame,
Love came so lightly
I knew not that he came.

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MARK

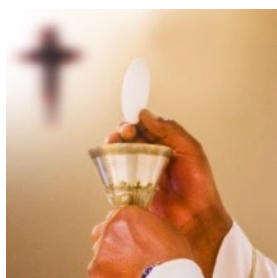

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out in pairs giving them authority over the unclean spirits. And he instructed them to take nothing for the journey except a staff - no bread, no haversack, no coppers for their purses. They were to wear sandals, but, he added, 'Do not take a spare tunic.' And he said to them, 'If you enter a house anywhere, stay there until you leave the district. And if any place does not welcome you and people refuse to listen to you, as you walk away shake off the dust from under your feet as a sign to them.' So they set off to preach repentance; and they cast out many devils, and anointed many sick people with oil and cured them.

LIVING THE GOSPEL THIS WEEK

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

Have you ever wondered why the gospels have so much to say about eating and drinking? There are the two miracles of the loaves and fishes, the marriage feast at Cana, Zacchaeus's celebratory feast after Jesus called him down from the tree, the feast where a woman poured ointment over Jesus' feet, Jesus' last supper with his disciples, his further meal with them after the resurrection, and there were others. I want to suggest that the entire gospel story is about giving and receiving hospitality.

Some of us like entertaining, some of us prefer to be entertained. Some people like giving parties, other like going to them. In today's gospel Jesus is sending out his disciples to neighbouring villages. The idea is that they are to offer people the hospitality of God. They are to invite anyone who will listen to them into the kingdom of God which Jesus himself describes as a great marriage feast, with God playing host. Life in the kingdom starts now, with the forgiveness of sins and a share in God's own love to pass on to others. This will come to its fullness when we join Christ in his resurrection.

At Mass we eat and drink Jesus' body and blood. That reminds us of the great feast that awaits us in the Kingdom, and it gives us the nourishment we need to prepare ourselves to be fit for the company of God, his angels and saints.
